

THE QUEBEC OBSTRUCTIONISTS.

"Now then, old boys! you musn't stand in people's way! You must move on!"

ON THE MOVE.

"I'll paint your picture, darling," cried
An artist to his lovely bride,
"I'll dip my brush in colors rare."
"And show the world that thou art fair."
"No, don't," she answered, "what's the use,
"When I can have it done by BRUCE."

Poetic Sprouts.

Some poets sing the violet's praise,
Some celebrate the lily;
The glorious tints the rose displays
Charm many a minstrel silly.

Such whims and fancies please not me,
Away with all such folly,—
No rose or lily can compare
With that scrumptious flower—the Cauli.

Why should the Marquis of LORNE's remarks be listened to with the greatest attention?

Because he has had Fair Grounds for most of his assertions, lately.

A Linsday lady recently remarked that she did so like lawn parties. Our funny contributor, who was present, accused her of playing on the governor's name, but the lady blushing denied the assertion, and it turned out afterwards that a handsome young clergyman was paying her violent attention about that time.

BALDNESS!

Neither gasoline, vasoline, carboline, or Allen's, Ayer's, or Hall's hair restorers have produced luxuriant hair on bald heads. That great discovery is due to Mr. Winter corbyn, 144 King-street West, opposite Revere Block, as can be testified to by hundreds of living witnesses in this city and Province. He challenges all the so-called restorers to produce a like result.

PRESS OPINIONS.

"The last number of Grip is a decided hit.—Ministers are represented as returning from England. A youthful lad, representing Canada, is running to meet them; but Hon. Mr. Browns, as his nurse, cries out—'Hoot, Laddie! ye needna rin to welcome them, they've brought ye naething! Their mission was a failure.' The Ministers, however, look upon the nurse with a sort of twinkle in their eyes and face, as much as to say, 'wait until we unpack our carpet-bag and see.'"—Newmarket Era.
Funny, isn't it? It all depends on whose spectacles you wear. We thought it was a hit at the Ministers, but through Tory glasses it seems it is a hit at the Hon. G. B. North York Reformer.
