connection with the formation of a vigitance society for the defence of personal rights discussed the reported intention of the authorities to form a branch of the detective force whose duties would be to especially inquire into offences arising from political disaffection. It was announced that Sir Vernon Harcourt, Home Secretary, would be questioned in the House of Commons in regard to what action the Government would take.

Sir Vernon Hercourt and Bir Richard Assheton Cross (Conservative) held a conference to-day for the purpose of arranging for the speedy passage of the bill restricting the use of explosives. LONDON, April 8 .- If Harcourt's bill remembers will support an amendment making it retrospective.

The Times says the hirelings and fenatics who come from the Irish-American slums to use the dagger and dynamite, though not directly hounded on by the Irish orators, are encouraged by the absence of any honest attempt on the part of the Irish leaders to denounce the outrages committed or in contemplation.

John Kirton was arraigned this afternoon and formally remanded. Kirton was trying to escape from London when errested. From papers found on the other prisoners there is little doubt that Kirton was selected to commit the actual deeds of destruction. Oa Kirton's arraignment this afternoon it was proved that he had corresponded with Gallegher yesterday at the Churing Cross Hotel. It is stated that the police at Birmingham have certain evidence that Whitehead and the prisoners arrested in London were implicated in the recent outrages. They claim that they will be able to show that Whitehead, for many years, has been one of the principal Fenians in England. It is exected that he will be tried at London with the other prisoners. The statement that en infernal machine of ingenious mechanism had been discovered is denied.

Livearcon, April 7 .- Densey and Flanigan were fully committed for trial. They reserved their defence. Witnesses deposed that the bex Densey had in his possession contained materials for explosives and a proparation of arsenio and dynamite, and parts of an infernal machine consisting of an anparatus by which sulphuric sold could be allowed to slowly soak through into a mixture, the principal element of which was With this combination chloride of potash. an explosion could be produced in a maximum time of forty minutes. The muchinery was of exactly similar make to those used in Glasgow and at the London Times office explosions. The police were cross-examined by counsel for the prisoners, but their evidonce was unshaken. It was stated in eviderce that the dynamite found in possession [that in the infernal machines seized on their importation into Liverpool.

GLASCOW, April 8 .- Norman and Gallagher have been arrested on a charge of causing the explosion at the gas works here. Gallagher is an Irish-American, and brother of the man arrested at Lambath When arraigned he declared that he was innocent, and only left the United States on the 8th of February. He was remanded for eight days.

From papers found in Whitehead's dynamite factory it is believed that a clue has been obtained as to the perpetrators of the Whitehall explosion. The police say soveral important acrests will shortly be made. Fisherty, the man under surveillance, has not been arrested, but he is so closely tracked that he can be taken at any moment. In working the class the atmost secrecy is maintained by the police.

BIRMINGHAM, April 7 .- Figherty, who has been under surveillance as a suspicious character, has openly expressed his sympathy with Whitehead. In consequence of there expressions an augry mob to-day attacked his residence, smashing the doors and windows. Figherty fled to the police station for protection. About a grain of dynamits found among Whitehead's stock was exploded today as an experiment. The report was deal-

London, April 8 -A man named Alaburghe, aged 21, was arrested to day at an hotel in the vicinity of Waterloo Bridge. He had just arrived from America, and is believed to be a friend of Gallagher. The arrest is considered one of the most important made yet.

The Observer says the police pusses knowledge which may lead to turther developments 'In what is likely to become the most hideous' and stupendous plot of the modern times. On Saturday Tracy Gould, an American lawyer, applied at the Bow Street Police Court for permission to see Gallagher. The Magistrate referred him to the Visiting Justices. Bernard Gallagher, who is in custody at Glasgow, is a moulder. It is believed there are seventy or eighty persons conceined in the dynamite conepiracy. The police believe they have secured nearly all the coneignment of nitro-glycerine now in London. In response to his letter denouncing the dynamite outrages, Mr. A. M. Sullivan, ex-M.P., received a personal warning from O'Donovan Rossa to be careful about his future utterances. Ansthat former trifling cutrages, like attempt to burgh arrived from New York two weeks ago. The police have been watching him. Documents on Gallagher and Norman connect Ansburgh with the conspiracy. Norman will probably be transferred from the dock to the witness box on Thursday. Millbank Prison A meeting of members of Parliament and is guarded by soldiers. It is believed Ansother prominent persons here last night in burgh is not the true name of the man arrested to-day. There is reason to believe that Gallagher has had a military training. The documents discovered at Salford, and forwarded to Harcourt, are not Fenian papers.

Paris, April 8 .- James Stephens, ex-Head Centre of the Fenian Brotherhood, states that if Parnell would join the revolutionists the wrongs of Ireland could be redressed by the sword. Stephens condemned the use of dynamite or the knife in the struggle against English misrule.

New York, April 7 .- The leaders of the Irish movement here claim to be entirely ignorant of the identity of the man arrested in England in connection with the dynamite movement, though Joyce, the Secretary of garding explosives is not retrospective, many the Council of the Fenian Brotherhood, asserts that there are over two hundred dynamite and nitro glycerine factories in England.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The State Department has received no intimation that Great Britain will ask this Government to lend a force of detectives to assist in tracking the dynamite plotters.

New York, April 7 .- It is alleged that the following has been received here: Bavro, April 7 .- To O'Donovan Rosea, N.Y.: Factory at Lasds dangerous; must be removed; cable John, of Mill street, to remain at Vienna till the 18th: I cannot reach Moscow until the 21st; owing to troubles in England, exparlments at Furt Lee must be postponed until I return; sent no farther message to me, as I have been shadowed by detectives before end of month I will give a good account of myself in two nations. Signed "Mezz; roff."

New York, April 8 -A hundred and fifty delegates of the Irish organizations in this vicinity gathered in their hall here to-day to meet Dr. Wallace and a committee of which he was chairman, with a view of stranging for the reception to Parnell. Wallace and the committee did not appear and the delegates organized a meeting of their own. Wallace was denonuced, Parnell and the peace policy repudiated, and dynamite said to be the only policy of the future. The meeting adjourned in great confusion.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8 .- The Central Union, composed of delegates from the various branches of the Land League, at Philadelphia, met this sitercoon to arrange for the National Convention, which will be held here on the 26th instant. The Executive Committee was justructed to issue a call for a public meeting to arrange for a barquet for Parnell upon his arrival. A despatch was read from Jas. Mooney, President of the National Land Lengue, questioning the accuracy of a cablegram which declared that Parnell would not attend the convention. This was greated with applause. Many tickets have already been sold for the reception to Parnell to be given in the Academy of the prisoners was a similar compound to of Music on the 27th instant. It was resolved to invite Gov. Pattison to preside at the reception. The Catholic Total Abstinence Union this afternoon declined an invitation of the Land League to send delegates to the National Convention on the ground that it was under the protection of the Catholic Ohurch, and as such it desired to keep alcof from politics. The Union, however, expressed the hope that the Convention would be spocessu. New York, April 8 .- London specials say it is certain that a widespread organization in the flourishing city of Chicago, our exiled for the destruction of public buildings exists. As yet only its subordinate agents have been arrested or tracked, and the Government officials are aware of the existence in London and other cities in the Kingdom of large masses of explosives all definite trace of which however, they have temporarily lost. At any moment, therefore, the public may be startled by the news of a successful raid. Every approach to London is guarded and the lugga a of passengers upon the railways quietly examined. Harcourt's new bill will oblige all manufacturers of explosives to take out licenses and render liable to penal servitude for a long period, if not for life, and persons found in possession serve him, and now verture to suggest, with of explosive substance for unlawful purposes. At present two years' imprisonment is the maximum penalty. The bill will certainly be pushed through during the coming week. Parnell, dreading to be compromised by the Rossa faction, if he should go to the Philadelphia convention, will remain.

The anti-Irish feeling has been aroused in the metropolis and elsewhere. In public the employment of Irish help is dispensed with as far as it can be done with any appearance of decency, and in private circles the ill-feeling manifests itself most insultingly. The police are convinced that the intention of the conspirators was to blow up a large number of public structures simultaneously at night and. procure at all hazards an explosion about some part of Windsor Castle, where the Queen is living: It is also intimated close to Mill Bank Prison received a letter in that it was designed to reach as near as which the writer threatens to blow up two possible some members of the Government. This sentimentals likely to find vigorous expression during the coming week in the House of Commons.

Ansburge was arraigned to-day on a charge of being concerned in the conspiracy with Norman, Gallagher, Wilson and Dalton; and was remanded until Thursday. The landlady of the notel where Norman boarded identified Gallagher as the man who inquired about rooms for Norman.

It is rumored that there have been four more arrests in connection with the dynamite disclosures. It is said there are six prisoners, names unknown, now confined in Bow Street Station, who are concerned with the dynamite conspiracy; charges will probably be preferred against them to day.

It is stated that Norman has been acting for some time in the service of the police. A police steamer has been ordered to cruise in the vicinity of Woolwich arsenal day and night.

The authorities have selzed two cases of explosives on a barge in the Thames, and sent them to Woolwich. The cases were shipped from Hamburg, but the consignor and consignees are unknown.

Twenty-four arrests were made to-day in the outskirts of Cork and Limerick, and numerous important documents have been LIVERPOOL, April 9 .- Owing to the receipt of letters containing threats to blow up the Post Office, great precautious are being taken. Thirty edditional detectives have been appointed to do extra duty here. The fire brigedo has been warned to be ready for any emergency. All steamers arriving from Cork are being searched for expicatives. Thus far none have been discovered.

WATCHING BUSSIAN REFUGEES.

PARIS, April 9 .- Policemen are watching a number of Russian relugees suspected of beng connected with an alleged plot to kill the Czar at the time of his coronation. It is recorted French detectives with proceed to Mescow on that occasion to assist the Russian police in watching suspected persons.

THE DIQUESE OF NICOLET.

Quence. April 9 -It is quite evident that the Diocese of Three Rivers is to be divided. The French papers to-night publish a letter from Rev. Mr. Marois, Secretary of His Grace the Archbishop, stating that the erection of the inture Diocese of Nicoles is an affair to he rogulated by the Soversign Pontiff, and that the Bishops of the Province are charged with His Grace the Archbishop to propose to the Holy See the limits deemed most desirabic and the names of three cardidates.

ARCHBISHOP CROKE ON PARNELL. THE PRELATE'S LETTER --- STARTING A TESTIMO-

My DEAR EIR.-The time has, I believe, come when the question of paying a rational tribute to Mr. Parnell, in recognition of his great personal worth and splendid public services, should be presented for solution to the Irish people. It has been referred to more than once of late in the columns of the Freeman's Journal, and to a similar proposal made in various parts of the States, but especially countrymen, headed by Archbishop Feehan, I am glad to know, responded with commend able promptitude and generosity.

We owe Mr. Parnell a deep debt of gratitude. He has devoted his time and match less energies to the amelioration of our poor suffering people; he has procured for thousands of them the right to live and thrive in their native land, and by doing so has carned for himself the bitter hatred, and possibly even the execration, of Mesers. Foreter and Co., and of every other enemy of his country.

I, for one, therefore, shall bave great pleasure in identifying myself with any movement having for its object to compliment or that view, the immediate formation of a National Committee, to be composed of a dozen gentlemen, like, for instance, the Lord Mayor of Dublin and Mr. E. Dwyer Gray, who would forthwith publish a suitable address to the Irleh race abroad as well as at home, and invite their co-operation and anbacriptions. Assuming, as I think I may, that this course will be promptly adopted, and destrons, moreover, of carrying out in practice what I preach in words, I beg to enclose a cheque for £50 as my subscription to the Parnell Testimonial Fund.

When closed, and given to the public in its complete form, the subscription list, spari from other interesting and beneficial results, will supply an admirable test as to who really belongs just now, or does not belong, to the Irish Parliamentary party, besides placing on permanent, and indeed, historic record the oft repeated truth-that there exists a wide and essential difference between practicel and merely prefessing or platform patriots, whether they belong to the upper or humbler classes, to the Church or to the State-I remain, my dear sir, your very faith- every case in the Court of Queen's Bench by ful servant,

Logoon, April 3-To day Jacob Bright offered a motion declaring that in the interests of the growing commerce of Great Britain in Southwest Africa no treaty should be made by the Government, sanctioning the ann x ition by any European power of territories on an adjacent to the Congo, or interfering with the commercial freedom hitherto enjoyed in that | Castle, and all Irish organizations will be outregion by Great Britain. Mr. Bright subsequently withdrew the motion in favor of an amendment offered by Mr. Wodehouse to the effect that no treaty should be made affecting territory on the Congo that would not afford adequate securities to all agercies working there. Mr. Wodehouse's motion was carried, the Government agreeing thereto.

Lord Fitzmaurice, Under Foreign Secretary, replying to Mr. Kinnard, who questioned him regarding strictures which appeared in the New York newspapers on the manner in which the United States dealt with the Geneva award, said it was contrary to usage and inconsistent with the dignity of the House to base a discussion on passages in foreign newspapers, destitute of official character and only representing the opinion of their own writers. The "Alabama" question was now only of historical importance. The Government had no interest in the manner in which the Americans disposed of the money.

Lord Randolph Churchill's letter advocating the claims of Lord Salisbury to the sole structed. tended to sutisfy Sir Stafford Northcote that he is secure of the unwavering support of his afternoon, when Sir Stafford Northcote rose to 632 a question, he was greeted with prolonged cheers from the Tories. London, April 5 .- In the House of Commone this afternoon Mr. Childers submitted | revengethe budget for the year ending March, 1883. The revenue was £89,004,000, and exceeded the estimated by £4,069,000. A decrease in the consumption of spirits made a reduction from that source of £500,000. The total expenditure: were £88,006,000. The expenses of the war in Egypt, including the amount for the Isdian contingent, was £3,896,000. He had no arrears to report on account of war expenditure as incurred by the present Government. The expenditure for the coming year he estimated at £85,789,000 and the revenue at £88,480,000. The see the debt reduced by £172,000,000. Mr. mede from silver be charged only on goods actually sold, and that eventually they should be abolished altogether, but not this year. He proposed that the tax on railway earnings, where the fares were very small, should be abolished, and that the standard moisture of tobacco and spuff on which exemption was allowed should be raised one per cent; that provision be made looking towards a reduction in the rate for telegrams sent anywhere inland to sixpence, and that three half-pence of the income tax be removed. LONDON, April 9.—The Government's bill to be introduced in the House of Commons relative to explosives provides maximum penalty for causing explosions by which life or property is imperilled shall be lifelong servitude. The attempt to cause an explosion or making or keeping explosives with intent to cause an explosion is made punishable by imprisonment for 20 years, and unlawful making or keeping explosives one uspicious circumstances will be punishable by 14 years imprisonment. All accessories to such crimes will be treated as principals. The bill prowides for the ordering of official enquiries into orimes specified for the arrest of absconding witnesses and for searching for explosives. The penalties will be inflicted irrespective of tions, if made, would reduce the surplus to the damage done by explasion. LONDON, April 9.—Sir Vernon Harcourt, in introducing his bill to day, said the usture of the danger it sought to guard against was well known. We have to deal with an association organized against all the interests, who announce their plans for wholesale murder, and who ought to be treated as belonging to no nation. The speech was hearthly cheered, and especially by the Tories.

Sir A. Cross said the Opposition was willing to assent to the bill in order that all British subjects, at home and abroad, would know that the law was no longer defiable with impunity. Sir Vernon Harcourt's measure, he explained, was a permanent one. He was convinced the danger was very imminent. After the bill passed the House of Commons, it was immediately sent to the House of Lords, where it was adopted without delay. The royal assent has been received by telegraph to day, and the Act becomes law tomortow.

DESPOTIS 4.

AM "USPRECEDENTED BILL - PUBLIC LIBERTIES TO BE CONFISCATED IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRRLAND

By cable from Irish Special News Agency.) LONDON, April 7. - The Original Code Bill which has just been introduced; is the most those engaged in political movements ever attempted in England.

It permanently catablishes the system of Star-chamber inquiry, house searches by day or night, the compulsion of evidence by imprisonment until the witness yields, the acquittal. It allows no justification in cases of reditious libel. The Conspiracy clause makes an organization of a million of men responsible for every act of every individual member.

The application of the bill to England as well as Ireland makes the matter worse instead of better, because Irishmen resident in England will be the only persons treated unfairly. The Star Chamber Inquiry will take place in Scotland Yard instead of Dublin side the pale of the law. Its effect in Ireland will be to establish a perpetual Coercion Act.

Absolute lukewarmness or ignorance regarding the bill prevails among the English members, and the fight will probably be left entirely, at least in its first stages, to the Irish members. The Cabinet propose to smuggle the bill through by means of the Grand Com. mittee, where there are only four Parnellites, and only two of those-Parnell and Sextonstrong men. Earl Spencer has entirely abandoned the idea of connecting the Parliamentary party with the murder conspiracy.

The Grand Jury then retired. They were selected from a special panel drawn from residents of the City and County of Dublin. There were very few claims for exemption from service. The Grand Jury soon returned with a true bill against Joe Brady, charging him with the murder of Unvendish and Burke, when Brady was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Application on behalf of the prisoner was then made for a postponement of the trial, as the preparations for it were not completed. The Crown counsel opposed a longer post-
