

I shall never forget Dr. Lilienthal, who had a great experience in both allopathic and homœopathic treatment, and who always said that the closer he adhered to the homœopathic treatment the better he was satisfied, and his patients received more benefit from it than from any other form of treatment. I am of the opinion that the homœopathic law is right. You cannot make a right of a wrong, so there can be no compromise. Similia will cure more pain than any anodyne, and more promptly. Similia is a greater law than many of us realize.—J. C. Fahnestock, M.D., Piqua, O., in A. I. H. Trans., 1899.
