THE CIVIL WAR

FROM ALL POINTS OF VIEW.

SPECIAL STUDIES IN ITS HISTORY.

The July MAGAZINE OF AMERICAN HISTORY presents to its readers the introductory chapters to its series of consisting of seven brilliantly-written, informing, and intensely interesting papers on the events beginning with the opening of hostilities and the first great uprising throughout the land in 1861.

Lieut-General Charles P. Stone, late chief of the general staff of the Khedive in Egypt, writes a graphic and forcible sketch of the condition of "Washington in March and April, 1861."

General Thomas Jordan, C.S.A., the well-known Confederate General, writes a terse, readable, and critical paper on the "Beginnings of the Civil War in America" from the Southern standpoint, unfolding much that belongs to the truth of history.

General Meredith Read, the Adjutant-General of the State of New York in 1861, contributes an exceptionally notable and stirring account of State military affairs at that period.

Colonel Charles C. Jones, Jr., LL.D., C.S.A., Chief of Artillery of the Confederate Department of Georgia and the Third Military District of South Carolina, writes of the "Seizure and Reduction of Fort Pulaski."

"The March of the Seventh Regiment," and the "Great Uprising in New York City in 1861," forms, as told by the Editor, a vivid picture of sights, scenes and events, which to the present generation will hardly seem among the possibilities.

Brig-General Egbert L. Viele writes a spirited account of "The Seventh Regiment at the Capital," and "The Daylight Contingent" George Rutledge Gibson, the great-grandson of Edward Rutledge, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, contributes a strong and substantial article, of some twelve or more pages entitled "Wall Street in the Civil War," which is a carefully prepared and comprehensive study of the financial aspects of the conflict.

The future numbers of the Magazine will contain each month from two to four ably written articles on the CIVIL WAR, tracing the civil and political incidents and influences, as well as the military operations that destroyed African slavery in America, and preserved the National Government of the foremost Republic, and one of the most prominent nations of the world.

Subscriptions may begin at any time, and all booksellers and newsmen receive them, or remittances may be made direct to the publishers. Price, 50 cents a copy; or $5.00 a year in advance.

There are two handsome volumes in each year, beginning with the January and July.

The price of the bound volume is $3.50 for each half-year, in dark green levant cloth, and $4.50 if bound in half morocco.
