

THE DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
LE MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES EXTÉRIEURES

History of the Evolution of the Department of External Affairs from its formation in 1909.

CARTER, H.H.

Born in Toronto, January 4, 1918. B.A. (Univ. of Toronto, 1938); M.A. (Univ. of Toronto, 1940 Public Admin.) Joined Canadian Army, Aug. 1940 (2nd Lt.); served in the United Kingdom and North-West Europe; discharged, Jan. 1945 (Capt.). Foreign Exchange Control Board Summer, 1940. Joined External Affairs as FSO 1, Jan. 1945. Third Secy., Washington, Apr. 1945; Ottawa, Oct. 1945 (European, U.N. Divs.); Adviser, New York (CPMUN), Dec. 1947; Ottawa, July 1951 (U.N., Far Eastern, DL(2) Divs.); First Secy, The Hague, Oct. 1954; Counsellor, Oct. 1955; Counsellor, New Delhi, Oct. 1958; Ottawa, Jan. 1961 (Head, United States Div.). Ambassador to Finland, June 1964; Ambassador to South Africa, Sept. 1969 and concurrently High Commr. to Lesotho, Oct. 1969; High Commr. to Botswana, Nov. 1969; High Commr. to Swaziland, Apr. 1970; Ottawa, Sept. 1972 (Dir., African Affs. Anglophone Div.); concurrently, Mar. 1975, Depy. Dir. Gen. Bureau of African and Middle Eastern Affs; Currently Director, Historical Division.

Audit and Evaluation of Canada's Operations Abroad

MIDWINTER, James R.

Inspector General of Foreign Operations, Government of Canada. Following education at the Universities of British Columbia and Oxford (Rhodes Scholar for B.C., 1951), Mr. Midwinter entered the Foreign Trade Service in 1953. He served at a number of missions abroad before returning to Canada to take up posts in the Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce and the Privy Council Office (most recently as Senior Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet). Since assuming his present appointment, he has supervised inspections of Canadian diplomatic operations in Africa, Southern Europe, Britain and the United States.