

1988

- a) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films and a delegation of cinematographic workers consisting of three people for a period of seven days to participate in the Montreal International Film Festival;
- b) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films and a delegation of cinematographic workers consisting of two people for a period of seven days to participate in the Canadian International Animated Film Festival;
- c) The Soviet side will send films to the Vancouver International Film festival;

4. The sides will encourage the exchange of specialists (delegations or individuals) who would represent cinematography in a broad sense as well as the exchange of information in the field of cinematography.

5. The sides will encourage cooperation in the co-production of films and will assist in rendering production and artistic services during the shooting of films by one side in the territory of the other. During