

federal government on even interprovincial transportation, and the control section of the bill was withdrawn because of the opposition of the provinces. They made representations so strong to the effect that their revenue would be curtailed substantially, that in view of those representations it was decided to withdraw that portion of the Transport Bill. I think that will answer your question.

The ACTING CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen, shall we adjourn until to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock?

Some Hon. MEMBERS: Agreed.

The committee adjourned at 6.05 o'clock p.m. to meet again tomorrow, Wednesday, May 15, at 11.00 o'clock a.m.

APPENDIX A

