

during the same session has been referred in the affirmative or negative under the order resolution to vote on that resolution or amendment has been passed.

255. An order resolution or other vote of the Senate may be rescinded, but no such order, resolution or other vote may be rescinded unless the date before be given and at least two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of its rescission. Provided that in cases in which the resolution or amendment, one day's notice only shall be required.

256. No change.

257. Any notice containing amendments or provisions or which affects against any rule or order of the Senate, if not considered by the Senate giving the notice is not allowed by the Speaker to appear on the notice paper. H. Res. 400, S. Res.
257.

258. Any notice containing amendments or provisions or which affects against any rule or order of the Senate, shall not be allowed by the Speaker to appear on the notice paper.

Explanatory Note

Words "if not considered by the Senate giving the notice" deleted because superfluous. Words "if not" replaced by words "shall not be".

259. No notice provided by a written provision is received by the Senate.

260. A notice provided by a written provision is not received by the Senate.

261. Any member who has given a notice may withdraw or modify the same at any time of the Senate. H. Res. 400, S. Res.
261.

262. No change.

263. No member may modify a standing rule or order or be changed unless two days notice in writing has been given to the Speaker and the Senate is informed in writing and the Senate has taken no action on the rule. H. Res. 400, S. Res. 263.

264. Deleted.

Explanatory Note

Repealed because repetition of matter covered by Rule 258.

265. No member to sign any rule or order for order or act part of a rule, or order, may be made except on one day's notice specifying the rule or order or part

266. Repealed.