JESSIE PHILLIPS; A TALE OF THE POOR - LAW. BY MRS. TROLLOPE,

AUTHORESS OF
"MICHAEL ARMSTRONG, THE FACTORY-BOY."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We hail with much gratification the first number of this work, and are confident that the clever authoress of 'Michael Armstrong' will not fail in ably delineating the enormities of the New Poor Law. The pleasing form in which this work appears, is such as we have no doubt will ensure its complete success, and carry along with it the feelings and affections of her readers."—Exeter Gazette:

"The Times has long been thundering away against the New Poor Law; and the indefatigable Mrs. Trollope has now opened a fire against the same measure, the evils of which she has determined to exhibit in a tale, to be published in twelve monthly parts. Mrs. Trollope, on this occasion has invested her subject with all the interest of a romance."—Dublin Evening Post.

"This commencing number is of good augury. The chief denizens of a country village in one of those favoured districts in which factories are unknown, are introduced to the reader in a humorous, off-hand vein that takes at once. Nor is there a lack of the pathos with which 'A Tale of the New Poor Law' ought to be enforced. We cordially commend the fortunes of Jessie Phillips to the reader."—John Bull.

"In this first part of Mrs. Trollope's new story, the leading families of the village of Deepbrook are very graphically described; the examination of a poor widow before the Board of Guardians is given with a great degree of vividness and force that can have been derived only from the life. Every thing promises well for a powerful and sustained interest. To the author we cordially exclaim, 'God speed you in the righteous cause.'"—Court Journal.

"Mrs. Trollope has again wielded her vigorous pen in defence of the helpless and the afflicted; her 'Factory Boy' laid bare the cruelties practised in factories; she is now with the same laudable spirit, exercising her gigantic talents in the same holy cause, the object of the present publication being to lay before the world the hardships inflicted by the New Poor Law. Independent, however, of the main object in view, the work promises to be one of a general interest, and will, if we may judge from the first part, prove most entertaining to others besides those more immediately interested in the subject."—Bath Herald.
