

Member thereof, and the name of the person so proposed, together with those of the proposer and seconder, shall be placed in some conspicuous part of the room or place where the meetings of the said Society usually are held, and there remain till the next ordinary meeting, at which time the ballot on the said proposal shall take place. Provided always, that the affirmative votes of three-fourths of the Members present at any such ordinary meeting shall be requisite for the due election of any such Member, and the quorum necessary at any such meeting to qualify it or render it competent to proceed to the election of any Ordinary Member shall be ten, for a Corresponding Member twelve, and for an Honorary Member sixteen.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that at all ordinary meetings of the said Society, seven Members of the said Corporation shall be a competent quorum to proceed to all the usual business of the said Corporation, except in such cases as herein otherwise specially provided for, and whatever question, matter or thing shall be proposed, discussed, or considered at any such meeting or any other meeting of the Society, shall be finally determined by the majority of votes of the Members present at such meeting, except as herein otherwise provided for.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Corporation may hold Extraordinary Meetings, to be called and summoned in such manner and form as may be agreed upon by the Members of the said Corporation; provided always, that such extraordinary meetings shall not be competent to proceed to the business to be submitted to the said meeting, unless twelve Members thereof are present.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Society shall, from time to time, for ever hereafter have power to make, constitute, ordain, and establish such By-Laws, Rules and Regulations as they shall judge proper for the mode of election of their Council; for prescribing their functions and the mode of discharging the same; for the admission of new Mem-
