

ik

Page	Subject	Page
138	Directions for sailing in by Cape Henlopen	138
139	 from Reedy Island to Philadelphia	139
ibid	Tide Table	ibid
ibid	PLAN of the BAY and RIVER of DELAWARE	ibid
ibid	Directions from Cape Henlopen to Cape Henry	ibid
ibid	Remarks on the Land from Cape Henlopen to Chingo'suck Shoals	140
140	Directions for sailing in by Cape Henry Light house	140
ibid	 for sailing between the Middle Ground and the Horse Shoe	141
ibid	 for New Point Comfort	141
141	 for Norfolk and Hampton Road	141
ibid	 for running from Cape Henry up the Bay to Baltimore	142
142	PLAN of the BAY of CHESAPEAKE FROM ITS ENTRANCE TO BALTIMORE	142
143	Directions from New Point Comfort to Potomac River	143
144	 from Potomac River to Pamunkey River	144
145	 for going from Cape Henry or Lynn Haven Bay to York River	145
ibid	Cape Hatteras	146
ibid	Directions for coming in from sea for the coast of North Carolina	146
147	 for sailing by Georgetown *Light house, erected on the southern point of North Island, at the entrance of Georgetown (S.C.) Harbour	147
148	 for sailing into the Harbour of Georgetown, through North Inlet, a new passage lately discovered	148
ibid	 for sailing into Charleston Harbour	149
149	PLAN of CHARLESTON HARBOUR	149
151	Orders and Regulations of the port of Charleston, (S.C.)	151
ibid	From Charleston Bar to Port Royal	151
151	St. Helena Sound	151
ibid	Directions for Port Royal Harbour	152
152	 for sailing into Savannah, in Georgia	152
153	Winds and weather on the coast of South Carolina	153
ibid	The Mouth of St. Mary's River	153
157	Directions for the Mississippi	157
158	Passes, or Mouths of the Mississippi	158
159	Country from the Plaquemines to the sea, and effect of the hurricanes	159
160	Settlements below the English Turn	160
ibid	St. Bernard—New Orleans—Canal of Carondelet	161
162	Chimiquila, first and second German coasts—Catabanose—Fourche and Iberville	162
Cape Ann to Boston	Bayou de la Fourche—Atacapas, and Opelousas	163
ibid	Baton Rouge, and its dependencies—Pointe Coupee, and Fausse Riviere	163
163	Red River and its settlements	163
Cape Cod, or Race	Directions for sailing amongst the Carribee, or Leeward Islands, and the Virgin Islands, &c.	164
166	The Island of Barbadoes	166
169	 of Tobago	169
170	Description of the several Bays of Tobago	170
of Martha's Vine	The Island of Grenada	171
171	The Grenadines, or Granadillos	171
176	The Island of St. Vincent	176
ibid	 of St. Lucia	177
177	 of Martinico	177
179	A Table of the Latitude and Longitude of the principal places and headlands of Martinico	179 bound for Rhode	The Island of Dominica	180
ibid	 of Guadeloupe, and its dependencies	180
ibid	 of Antigua, with Barbuda	181
our, near Hell Gate	Sailing Directions for the North side of Antigua	181
180	The Islands of Monserrat, Redondo, Nevis and St. Christopher	182
182	Remains made in Basseterre Road, and Old Road	182
atague Point	The Islands of St. Eustasia and Saba	183
183	 of St. Bartholomew, St. Martin, and Anguilla, with Dog Island, and Prickly Pear Island	184
184	The Little Island and Bank of Aves	184
185	The Virgin Islands	185
186	The Islands of Santa Cruz, St. John, St. Thomas, Bieque, &c.	186
ork	 of Tortola, Virgin Gorda, Anegada, &c.	187
187	The Island of Sombreno	187
ed in the Harbour of	Directions for sailing along the south side of Portorico	188
188	Of the North Coast of Portorico	188
189		189
190		190
Light house on Cape		191
191		191
ibid		192

* The Light-house was blown down since the directions in page 204, were published.

B