The management takes pleasure in announcing for Monday and Tuesday next the greatest and most widely known drama ever portrayed, Uncle Tom's Cabin. Enacted by the famous Vitagraph players in 3 parts.

For Wednesday and Thursday, by special arrangement, Selig's great Wild Animal feature "Alone in the Jungle" will be presented. We are confident in saying that this is positively the most sensational picture ever produced and was secured for the Rosedale at great trouble and expense.

Norwegians Take Away Veto and Privilege of Bestowing Orders.

TORONTO

pecial Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. CHRISTIANIA, Norway, June 28 .-The democratization of Norway is proeeding at a pace that causes great alarm in royal circles. While King Haakon was on a state visit to his native Denmark recently, the Storthing Parliament passed a bill suspending the royal veto on government measures.

This veto is a mere formality, and is never used but suspending, it is significant because the Storthing expects passing before long bills which the king would have been sorely tempted to veto. Another bill passed does away with lecorations and prohibits Norwegians om accepting foreign orders. As the conferring of decorations is the king's
