Manager Kelley's Leafs should make up some lost ground in the long home series beginning today. Four games are scheduled with Baltimore—one this afternoon, one tomorrow and two on Saturday. The Birds, despite the changes made in the personnel of the team, have managed to retain their lead, and still look formidable. What must be considered as an extraordinary attraction is carded for tomorrow, when the Toronto Club will engage Baltimore and the strong Cincinnati Club on the one afternoon. The first game, with the Birds, will be played at two o'clock, and immediately following the Leafs will take on the big leaguers, headed by Buck Herzog, former Giant, and now giant among managers. The Reds have been the sensation of the seasand now giant among managers. The Reds have been the sensation of the sea-son. Doped out as a hopeless second-division team by the critics early in the campaign, they surprised everybody by flashing to the front and remaining there until a few weeks ago. They are now in fourth place, only a few games behind fourth place, only a few games behind the leaders. President Johnson of the American League will be here as the guest of the Toronto Club. It may be that Garry Hermann will also attend.

A very striking game of ball was played at Centre Island yesterday, when Dominion Express (audit department) defeated Randall-Johnston by a score of 15 to 5. Jack Radey, who twirled for Dominion Express, had 22 strike-outs, while minion Express, had 22 strike-outs, while star first-baseman for Dominion Express, played a first-class game. Summary: Three-base hits-Murphy, Judge. Home runs-Cunningham, Rountree. Two-base hits-W. Radey. Murphy, Smith. Left on bases-Dominion Express 2, Randall-three for the property of the property bases—Dominion Express 2, Randall-Johnston 5. Struck out—By Radey 22, by Harold 3. Walks—Off Radey 1, off Har-ld 19. The Torontos are going better now than at any other time this season and if the D. L. A. schedule were to be played over again, they would be equal favorites with the Nationals for the championship. What sent them away to a bad start was the necessity of making and drilling a new defence. They have it now with Stagg, Cameron and Somervile, with Dandeno and Longfellow in the field, and with and the complex to th defence. They have it now with Stagg, Cameron and Somervile, with Dandeno and Longfellow in the field, and with Harrison and Spellen as spares. More-over Gibbons, their crack goal keeper did

MEET AUSTRALIA AT CHICAGO TODAY

Canadians Play Davis Cup Games Today—Winners to Meet Germans.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 22.-The tennis stars of Canada and Australia today completed practice for their first clash in the Davis Cup preliminaries tomorrow at the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest. Two singles matches are on the program, with the contest in doubles slated for Friday and the final events in singles Saturday.
Tonight found the Antipodeans still favorites with the hot weather unfavorable from the viewpoint of the Canadians.
The winners of the match will meet the German team on the Allegheny club's courts in a contest for the privilege of playing the British team in the final round.

The Canadians found the warm weather enervating and attempted only enough work to keep on edge.
