

King's College—At a meeting of Governors, held at Government House, it was resolved that public notice should be given, that, his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, had transmitted a marked approval of late liberal alterations in that institution: also, that the instruction and honors of the university (with the exception of degrees in divinity) will henceforth be open to all, without any religious test; and that, undergraduates and bachelor of Arts may attend other places of worship, beside those of the established church.

An Annular Eclipse of the Sun was visible on the 12th. The ring was beautifully true distinct and vivid; at the time of the greatest obscuration, the light was of a very peculiar and unnatural cast—approaching to the appearance of twilight and moonlight, but more fascinating and melancholy than either.

Annapolis Royal, March 5.—The inhabitants of the ancient town of Annapolis Royal, in the county of Annapolis, in order to evince their attachment and loyalty to his Majesty's government, have by their unanimous and general contribution, erected a Flag [the British Union] which is to be raised on all Sundays and public holidays, throughout the year. May his Majesty's government, who ought to set, imitate (in other parts of the province) the glorious example. God save the King, and long may he reign—Communicated.
