THE LIFE OF NELSON. The Embodiment of the Sea Power of Great Britain. By CAPTAIN A. T. MAHAN, D.C.L., LL.D., United States Navy, author of "The Influence of Sea Power upon History, 1660-1783," etc., etc. Second edition revised. This great work treats of a period which must always be of the very deepest interest to every subject of the British Empire. It deals with the life of one of the most prominent and revered of the national heroes, whose name will never cease to excite a responsive thrill in the hearts of all true Britishers. Its author is well-known as the most distinguished writer of the present day on naval affairs. In this work he presents a study of the one man who in himself summed up and embodied the greatness of the possibilities which Sea Power comprehends, the man for whom genius and opportunity worked together to make him the personification of the navy of Great Britain. The name of Nelson is enrolled among those few presented by history, the simple mention of which suggests not merely a personality or a career, but a great force or a great era concrete in a single man. Cloth, 764 pages, with numerous Illustrations, Maps, and Battle Plans, $3.50.

APPLETON'S CANADIAN GUIDE BOOK. By CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS. Revised and corrected to date. This is probably the most interesting, the fullest, and most complete guide book that has ever been issued. It presents a complete view of the Dominion in a handy form, and its descriptions of the various localities are very attractive, while at the same time they constitute a practical guide. It is decidedly the cheapest book that has ever been put upon the market, and is a mine of Canadian information. Bound in Limp Cloth with Maps in Pocket. Crown 8vo. 75c.
