

the speaker? But in spite of this we are quite sure that thousands will be thankful to have in a permanent form that which Mr. Young has given them here ; and that very many others will be glad to read what they could not hear. My earnest wish is that the book may have the circulation it deserves ; my prayer is that it may be made the blessing which its author desires.

MARK GUY PEARSE.