

WHAT ITALY DID IN THE GREAT WAR

Famous General Explains
What His Country Accomplished in the Struggle.

Major-General Emilio Guglielmotti made an excellent impression at the Empire Club yesterday in his admirably moderate and lucid statement of Italy's part in the war, and her attitude towards the claims of the Jugoslav nation.

He made it clear that Italy had been an essential factor in the victory over Germany. The battle of the Marne could not have been won but for the release of French troops from the Franco-Italian frontier, and the subsequent tying up of Austrian troops on the Austro-Italian frontier when Italy declared war against the Huns, saved the situation.

Italy, he said, asked no more than France did when she required the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine. The provinces wrested from Italy by Austria in 1866 were on a similar basis. The claims of Jugoslavians on the Adriatic were not denied by Italy, he stated, but had been recognized by her. Italy admitted the justice of the Jugoslav demand for an outlet to the sea, and was willing to let them have two-thirds of the Dalmatian coast and the best port on the Adriatic. Italy, moreover, was willing to leave the case to the allies, to whom Italy had been loyal, and he believed the allies would be loyal to Italy.

A large audience, including many prominent citizens of Italian birth, was present, and General Guglielmotti was frequently and heartily applauded.

FORMER POLICEMAN SENT TO JAIL FOR FIVE DAYS

For stealing a box of cigars, from William Davenport, Gordon Ellis, formerly of the Toronto police force, and prominent as an organizer of the policemen's union, was convicted and sentenced to five days in jail by Magistrate Kingsford, in yesterday's police court. The magistrate said that he had come to the conclusion that the evidence of Archie McPherson, who claimed to have seen him steal the box of cigars, was correct, as no amount of cross-questioning had shaken his testimony.

Since the dismissal from the police force last August, Ellis has been employed by the Canadian Transfer Company, as a truck driver, and it was while carrying some trunks to the Union Station that he is alleged to have stolen the cigars from the seat of a truck where they had been left by William Davenport.

Mr. Essery, counsel for Ellis, said that when Davenport made his complaint, he was the worse of liquor, but Crown Attorney Corley held that reflections against Davenport had no bearing on the case.

"The matter is not going to remain as it is. We are going to continue to fight the case," said Mr. Essery, after the hearing was concluded.

Three Months at the Farm On Charge of Gambling

John Mitchell, who was arrested by Plainclothesmen Marshal and Sullivan some time ago, in an office in the Lombard building on a charge of keeping a common gambling resort, was sentenced to the jail farm for three months in yesterday's court. Six other men found in the place at the time were fined $30 and costs or 30 days. Mitchell was in the paymaster's office in the army since 1915.

"In my belief," said Mr. Corley, "this place has been running for years." The crown produced memoranda which showed that on one day alone betting to the extent of $255.75 had been done and the profits had amounted to $185.

Magistrate Kingsford sentenced Simon Rowley, charged with non-support of his wife, to thirty days at the jail farm.

TRUE BILLS RETURNED.

At the conclusion of their sitting yesterday the grand jury returned the following true bills: Louis Mellasky, theft and receiving; Joseph A. Pellerin, criminal negligence; Cecil Anthony, criminal negligence; and Arthur Snowball, seduction.

ACQUIRE ATHLETIC FIELDS

Subject to the approval of Finance Commissioner Bradshaw, the board of control at their meeting yesterday decided to issue debentures to the extent of one-half mill, the money to be used by the city in the acquisition of athletic fields. This decision was made while the board were discussing the recommendation made by the parks committee for the expenditure of $200,000 to be used for this purpose.

Salvation Army Officer Will Be Buried Today

Mrs. Brigadier Barr, who died at her late residence, 32 Jackman avenue, and whose funeral will be held today, had been a Salvation Army officer since 1891 and came from Palmerston, Ont., the member of a well-known Salvation Army family. She was, before marriage, Capt. Molliatt, and held a number of important posts in the Army. In 1897 she married Edna, now Brigadier Barr, who was one of the pioneers for the Army in Alaska.

More recently, however, they have been in eastern Canada, where Brigadier Barr was divisional commander in St. John, N.B., and district. Owing to ill health they returned to Toronto a week ago.

The funeral, which will be held today under full Salvation Army auspices, will be conducted from the Salvation Army temple, Albert street, at 2 o'clock, interment to be in Mount Pleasant cemetery. Commissioner W. J. Richards will officiate. Headed by a composite Army band, the cortege will be conducted to the cemetery via Albert and Yonge streets.

SCORE'S GREAT ESTATE SALE.

This is the fourth day of Score's Great Estate Sale of high-class stock of the product of the most noted of British wooden mills. The values are attractive, because men know that such merchandise could not be repeated today, and it was a good stroke of business when we instructed our Huddersfield broker in the early days to buy as heavy as he did, for these same qualities are next to impossible to secure at any price. It is a great opportunity. R. Score & Son, Limited, 77 King west.

NEW BUILDING PERMITS TOTAL FIFTY THOUSAND

Applications for building permits continue to pour into the city architect's department, and the cash total for the buildings for which permits were issued yesterday amounted to nearly $50,000. The demand seems to be mostly for stores and dwellings, and the department yesterday stated that the price of metal had taken a drop, which action may point to a further decrease in the price of building materials.

Following are the permits issued yesterday:
Geo. A. C. Clark, one detached brick dwelling and private garage, 30 Oakmount road, $5,000.
Edwin Coomb, one pair semi-detached brick dwellings, Greenwood avenue, near Mount Allen, $4,000.
W. J. White, three detached brick dwellings and private garages, Woodside avenue, near Fairview, $12,000.
Grant & Stevens, two attached brick stores, north side of Danforth avenue, near Carlaw avenue, $4,500.
F. A. McCabe, two detached brick dwellings, Willard avenue, near Glenlake, $5,000.
George Dale, five detached brick dwellings, Ozark crescent, near Doncrest road, $12,000.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS.
William S. Coward, a traveler and soloist in St. Paul's Church, who died of Spanish influenza on Feb. 2, 1919, left an estate valued at $3,839, which will be inherited by his children, Dorothy Elizabeth and John Dunlop Coward. A sad feature of the case was that the testator had left his wife as one of the guardians of his children, but she died a few days before him of the same sickness. Richard Stearns Hicks has applied for probate of the will of his wife, Frances Stearns Hicks, a well-known Toronto woman. The estate is valued at $2,245.
The father, mother and sister of John W. Taylor, who died in Toronto Feb. 18, will inherit the estate, which is valued at $1,200.
Pte. Richard J. Cook, who went overseas with the 134th Battalion, who was killed in action on Aug. 1, 1918, left an estate of $233, which will go to his sister, Mrs. Celia Williams.

SCHOOL WAS CLOSED.
Owing to the development of a case of apical meningitis in Hillcrest public school in the northern part of the city, the class was closed yesterday by order of Dr. Hastings so that the room might be fumigated. Dr. Hastings said that it was necessary in this case, but the feelings of the parents must be considered.
A majority of the pupils had been kept away from school pending action by Dr. Hastings.

ELM ST. METHODIST CHURCH.
Attention is called to the grand concert to be given in Elm Street Methodist Church this evening. The church choir will be assisted by Jessie Alexander and Harold Jarvis, both of whom are so well and favorably known. With such excellent talent and a popular admission (25 cents), a full house is assured.

WANT RESIGNATION HELD.
At their meeting yesterday the board of control asked Fire Chief Smith, who some time ago asked to be relieved of duties on April 1, 1919, to stay another month in order that the council might have more time to appoint a successor.
