Recommendations.

A recommendation passed on, asks for legislation to give the city power to go ahead with the opening of streets in the face of the petitions of property-owners. Another asks that the title to municipal lands be non-acquirable by trespassers, and another requires that plans not providing for cross streets every 600 feet or so be not allowed, and also that the city's consent be required for plans of any street of less width than 75 feet. It was decided that the city treasurer should be added to the board of members of the firemen's re-that by filling in the marshy areas a good stretch of park land could be turned to public account.

Controller Jones strongly championed its cause. Ald. McBride asserted that about nineteen acres of park land could be made, whereas the club's representatives had only stated about seven acres to be available. He was against the giving of any private privileges.

After the flare-up Ald. McMurrich suggested that a sub-committee go over the ground and ascertain the extent of prospective park land, and it was agreed
