The bullocks were killed under the platform and drawn up by a windlass. Under the United States rules, which governed the contest, the front feet and head were taken off and one hind foot skinned by the helpers before the contestants began to make time. When the contest was finished the sides were hung up clean and ready for the block. Fred Perry assisted Dennison, and Frank Misener was Glass' helper.

Bisley, July 22.—(Telegram Cable.)—
The Canadians did some very good shooting to-day in the first stage for the king's Prize and some that was nothing to boast of. At the 500 yards range the scores of the Canadians were a good average. Vroom. Spearing, Pelladie and McGregor each made 34 out of a possible 35, but other competitors made 25 possibles, and 40 thirty-fours, which leaves the Canadians nowhere, 20 to speak, at the present stage.
