EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 7.-Cattle-There was about one load on sale, and with a moderate demand; the feeling was steady for butcher cattle and stockers. Calves were in fair supply, moderate demand and steady at the quoted figures, but few sold up to the outside quotations; choice to extra were quotably $7 and $7 50; good ed injuries which will lay him up for to choice, $6 50 to $7. Sheep and lambs -The offerings were light, 28 loads, about six of which were Canadas; the demand opened fairly active, and from 15c to 25c higher on the top grades; the snow blockade that caused railroads to refuse shipments after noon checked business so that Canada lambs and some natives were held; the basis of Canadas was $5 40 to $5 50 asked; native lambs were quotable at $5 50 to $5 65; good to choice, $5 25 $5 50; common to fair, $5 to $5 25; sheep, choice to extra, $4 25 to $4 40; good to choice, $4 to $4 25; common to fair, $2 50 to $3 50. Hogs-Offerings were 47 loads; the uncertainty of shipping after the storm had blocked the east-bound tracks caused a lull in the business that practically left the matter of price out of the question; heavy hogs were quotable on the best hours of the day at $$ 40; mixed, $3 35; Yorkers, $3 30; some lights, $3 25; pigs, $3 25 to $3 30; roughs,

OLD COUNTRY PRICES. London, Dec. 5 .- Owing to large arrivals of Canadian and Argentine cattle, the market was weak and prices for such broke 1c. The demand was also limited and trade slow. Prices for best States cattle were fairly well maintained, they selling only 1/4c lower than last week, at 12c. Choice Canadian and Argentine cattle sold at 101/2c. Canadian sheep broke 1/2c to 1c, selling at 11c, and Argentine 1c to 11/2c,

Liverpool, Dec. 5 .- This market was somewhat demoralized for Canadian stock and prices for cattle declined 1c to 11/2c, to 91/2c to 10c, but sheep were appointed as delegates to the Western Fair at London from the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association. A quantity of wood around the stove n the sitting-room of the Arlington Hotel, Woodstock caught fire Wednesday morning and before the blaze was discovered a hole had been burned in the floor. Damage slight. An enterprising farmer near Belle River, bought one of the cars of wheat which were dumped out in the recent accident on the G. T. R., for $25, and succeeded in gathering up over 500 bushels of marketable grain.

Mrs. Brousseau, of Tilbury East, Humorous Incident Anent the Span complained to the magistrate that she had received sundry beatings from her husband and son, and exhibited bruises, but as the alleged offenses were committed just over the county line, no complaint could be taken.

Frank Blain, a carpenter at the Verity Plow Works, Tuesday, lost the index finger of his right hand. He was planing a half-inch board, and bearing down upon it, when the thin lumber suddenly cracked allowing the man's hand to run against the sharp knife. In an instant the toretinger was nipped off close to the hand. Recently, while Alex. McKercher was driving along the Marthaville side road he met with a most extraordinary and expensive mishap. His horse alesmen, of London, England, write and the other springing up pierced the emboweling it, so that its entrails fell on to the road. Mr. McKercher mercifully knocked the wretched animal on British dominions. A naval authority, the head and put an end to its agony.
