THOMPSON FAILED AFTER WARHOP WON

Leafs Get Even Break With the Grays-Lively Hitting.

when the locals fell on Thompson like a lot of wolves.

When Warhop was announced as Manager Lajole's choice for heaver in the first encounter it was set down at once as a Providence victory, as when the Grays faced the undershot pitcher in Baltimore on the recent southern trip they batted him out of the game and the Baltimore club in the first inning. The old boy fooled everybody, however, and got his revenge today, as after the first inning, when Egan's men started after him exactly as they did in Baltimore, he had them on his hip and gave them a terrible toss.

It went to the fifth inning before they could do anything more with his risers, and with the game sewed up he eased up a bit and two more were added to the Providence string, but that was all. The Grays threatened in the eighth, when the first two men up hit safely but the old boy was there and forced the next three batters to retire on easy chances. In this battle the Leafs looked a dozen classes better than the Grays. After two were out Bramard singled and scored on Onslow's triple to left, and he carried his run over when Tutwiler hit safely to left.

In the third, after Brainard had thrown

In the third, after Brainard had thrown out Kelly. Warshop doubled and scored on Altenberg's single. Jacobson walked and Whiteman singled, scoring Altenberg with the tying run. The Leafs bunted Eayrs to death in the fifth. Jacobson opened by beating out a tust. Whiteman bunted and Eayrs fumbled. Lajole kept up the good work by also beating out a bunt, and the bases were crowded. Graham switched and hit safely to centre. Sending Jacobson and Whiteman home. Blackburne forced Graham at second, but Schultz came along with a single, and Lajole tallied.

In the sixth Blackburne gave Brainard a life when he fumbled his drive. Onslow forced Brainard, but Tutwiler singled, and Jacobson walked. Whiteman flied to Rehg, who muifed the ball, and Warhop scored. Graham singled in the righth and Blackburne was hit. Schultz's out at first advanced both men and they tallied when Kelly made a base hit.

It looked like another Toronto victory in the second game when Thompson began to warm up for the Leafs and Peters for Providence. It was expected that the Toronto man would make monkeys of the Grays and that Peters would stay in the box but a short time. But the reverse was true, as the locals batted Thompson hard and often, while but for an error by Cooney in the ninth Peters would have held the visitors to game by a score of 3 to 2 and the world's champions winning the second. 3 to 1 Both contests were decided in the ninth innings.

Hendryx, in the first game, tied the score for New York; in the sixth inning with a home run, and when Boston took the lead in the eighth he repeated his long hit in New York's half, again tying the score. In the ninth, Pinch-Hitter Nunanaker bunted safely on a squeeze play, scoring Pipp, Boston made only five hits off Cullop and Russell in the second game, but won by scoring two runs in the ninth. Boston 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 2 9 2 Ottawa Lacrosse Club will make their first appearance here since 1911 when they play the Tecumsehs at the island on Saturday. It is expected that the fur will fly in this encounter, as the Indians are determined to show that it was the referee and not the ability of Ottawa that won the game a couple of weeks ago. The Senators are always a good drawing card in Toronto for local sporting enthusiasts and like to see anything from the capital beaten. The Tecumseh players say, that the only way Ottawa can beat them at the island Saturday is to bring along their own referee.

Art Harrison, the big Toronto defence player, and Cyril Denneny, the hockeystar, will be with Ottawa when they play the Tecumsehs here on Saturday. Bert Green and Art Warwick will be a lot better against Ottawa than they were against Nationals. Another week's practice should make them fit and ready. "Sandy" Karn, a defence man from the Beaches, was out with the Tecumsehs last night, and showed considerable class.

The Tecunsehs will devote the receipts of the Ottawa game to buying comfortable chairs for the wounded soldiers at the new hospital in Davisville. Starling, the little home fielder of the Tecumsehs, who went to New York with Riverdales last week, will be available for Saturday.

At Chicago.—Eddie Collins' triple and Wamby's error gave Chicago a 3 to 2 victory over Cleveland in the first game of the scries. The locals won the game in the sixth inning. Leibold walked and Weaver dropped a Texas leaguer in left. Both worked a double steal on the first ball pitched, and E. Collins cracked the next ball to deep centre. sending two runs home. Collins pulled up at third, but when he saw Wambaganes juzzle Speaker's return of the ball, he dashed home with the winning run. Score:

Cleveland 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 — 2 4 3 Riverdales last week, will be available for Saturday.

Benedict, the great goaler of the Ottawa Hockey Club, plays the same position for the Capital Lacrosse Club. He is just as good at lacrosse as he is in hockey.

Tecumsehs play Ottawa here on Saturday and then play Shamrocks a week later. Fitzgerald and Kalls, of St. Kitts, are both expected to play against the Irish. are both expected to play against the Irish.

Charlie Querrie, manager of the Tecumsehs, stated yesterday morning that the players showed more pepper at last night's work-out than any time this season. "We are all anxious to show that our defeat in Ottawa was not on the square, and intend to show some real lacrosse on Saturday," said the chief.
