Test badges will be issued by the Amateur Skating Asso-ciation of Canada in Montreal to suc-cessful candidates. If there are any candidates, arrangements will also be made for second class tests, I.S.U. In addition to these, a number of club tests and competitions have been pro-vided for. Following the example of other clubs, the committee has set up a test intermediary between the second and third class, I.S.U. tests, which are rather far apart. This will be called the senfor club test, and will be divided into two grades. Among the competitions is one for junior members under 18, which in-cludes one minute of free skating to music. There will be an intermediate competition restricted to those who have not passed the third class I.S.U. test, which also involves one minute of free skating. Prizes will be offered for pair skuting, which are shating to music, and Mrs. W. C.
