It will be seen by the above summary that the amount of labours performed is considerably less than last year, and yet the number added to the Churches is in advance of any previous year. While therefore, we regret that the labour has been diminished, we can but rejoice that so much good has been done. To God alone be all the glory.

In conclusion, Dear Brethren and Sisters, your Board would express their unfeigned thanks to Almighty God for His blessing during the past year; and to you for your hearty co-operation in this great and glorious work. And moreover, we would bespeak your continued aid by giving us your sympathies, counsels, contributions, and prayers.

Your Board are convinced of the utility of the establishment of more permanent missions. Much time and means have been apparently lost by Missionaries being obliged to leave in the midst of a good work, and in many instances when their work has just commenced.

Your Board deeply regret the necessity of circumscribing their operations in any degree, when so many extensive fields invite—nay urgently demand—missionary labour.

Instead of narrowing our field, we ought to enlarge it.—Newfoundland has been thought of as a mission field and something has been said but nothing done. Almost nothing has been done for the coloured population, and many of them very justly complain that they are sadly neglected.

Never perhaps dear brethren, were we more loudly called upon to be “up and doing” than at the present time.
