AVERS WEST NEVER BETTER REPRESENTED

Patenaude Continues Speaking Tour in Quebec; King
Coming East
FORMER PREMIER KING spent yesterday traveling east. The Liberal leader speaks in New Brunswick next week.

EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 20.—Premier Meighen carried his campaign into Alberta yesterday, and in two addresses stressed that the government which he headed was not sectional.
Speaking here last night, he declared that the Conservative party had been faced with a peculiarly unjust sectional appeal—an appeal that the Conservatives were a party of the east. He emphasized the western representation in his government, and sketched his own life in the west as his personal interest in its development.

“Never has Western Canada been represented in a government as it is today,” said Mr. Meighen.
He spoke of allegations which he said were made against him. “The allegations in this contest,” Mr. Meighen exclaimed, “are so founded as to be dismissed as founded in virtually every case. They consist of malevolent fabrications known to be untrue by those who circulate them.”

“What about the growth in exports?” queried a voice.
“The success of a country,” returned Mr. Meighen, “depends not so much on the volume of its exports as on the character of its exports. Canada was selling too much of its raw resources, exporting its raw resources, when at the same time its boys had to find elsewhere where the work they could not find at home.”

SUBURBY, Ont., Aug. 20.—Addressing two meetings in the interests of Conservative candidates yesterday afternoon and evening, Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Minister of Justice, expounded the doctrine of the Conservative party to crowds which totalled over 4,000, and by whom he was accorded an enthusiastic hearing. Speaking for an hour in French in the afternoon, Hon.
Mr. Patenaude asserted that if any constitution were to suffer, it was the constitution of Mecklenburg. “No man has sinned but himself, and he must do penance for that sin. He must not be allowed to gain power any more.” extensive investigation into Florida land frauds, which had been under way quietly for several months, resulted late today in more than 40 spiracy to defraud.

Two companies are involved, the developers of Fildor-by-the-sea, located north of Miami, and Arcadia Gardens, near Arcadia.

Warrants for the arrest of the realty promoters named in the indictments were to be sent to the various cities where the men are reported to be, according to William M. Gaborer, Tampa, whose direction the investigation was carried on.

BUSINESS GOOD IN NEW BRUNSWICK

The following appeared in the Aug. issue of "The Maple Leaf," a monthly publication issued by the Company and speaks well for general business conditions in New Brunswick, as also for the results accomplished by a local man who returned to this province only a few months ago. This proves that the business possibilities are here.

"Doesn't it do your heart good to see New Brunswick on the list? It is a long time since the old province was placed on the Roll of Honor, but we feel sure that the organization there now is fully competent to keep New Brunswick on the map. Just a little while ago Mr. Norman L. McGloin was appointed provincial manager. One tool he had at his disposal was the address of the Montreal Life. One of the decisions was made to put his head and soul into the task of developing an agency in his territory. He is a real fighter, with the courage of a lion. While comparatively new to the life insurance, he has been a successful salesman and organizer for many years. The New Brunswick business in July was the best ever received by the Company in a single month. Our old friend, Mr. Violette, contributed a large amount of business to the Company in his section of the province and is working up a very efficient district agency who will be there to take as a free lance in the Maritime, continues to fetter the pot by a substantial amount each month. He is and strength producing vitamins that are found in McGloin's God Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South America.

GREENVA, Aug. 20.—The address of Frank B. Kellogg, United States Secretary of State at Plattsburg, N. Y., on qualified assurance that his government will stick to the present disarmament discussions while there exists any hope that something can be achieved in the reduction of armaments.

CUSTOMS PROBE
GOITWIVES AT
HALIFAX, AUG. 25

Halifax immediately before the opening of the sittings.
The customs men of the inquiry by the Royal Commission, "Margaret," is learned, with her full personnel, will also be at Halifax for the opening. This indicates that further investigation into the voyages and general conduct of that now famous craft, will be made. A. J.
Dovey, former member of parliament for this district, and also a former member of the customs committee of parliament, is expected to be present. It is very probable that observations made by him, or others concerning the "Margaret" will be ventilated.

OPENING INQUIRY

The Halifax sitting on the 26th, is really the opening of the inquiry by the Royal Commission, the special already held at Quebec was of a special character, and at its conclusion the commissioner stated in effect that other matters touching the Margaret could be opened up when the inquiry was convened regularly at Quebec.

Alleged fake voyages of Nova Scotia liquor-laden vessels to points such as Sassaparilla, etc., the real objective being rum run, or points along the coast of the Maritime Provinces, it is expected, occupy the attention of the commission. The matter of possible complicity of local custom-house officers before the parliamentary committee which, doubtless, will be proceeded with.

It is not yet settled at what other points if any, in Nova Scotia, besides Halifax, the commission will sit. After finishing his business in Nova Scotia, the commission will take up cases arising in the other two Maritime Provinces.
