

The Evening Mirror

PAGES NINE TO SIXTEEN

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1922

SIXTEEN PAGES

WHAT OF MONEY THAT IS WED BY GREECE TO CANADA?

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Severe Greek defeats at the hands of Turkish Nationalists and the consequent political turmoil in Athens are raising some questions as to the capability of Greece to meet continued interest payments on the credit extended by Canada to the Greek government.

It is understood that Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, is taking up the credits to Greece and Roumania during his present visit overseas.

THE SHAKEN WORLD. London, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Dr. Marion Newbigin, in his presidential address before the geography section of the British Association at Hull yesterday, declared that the centres of West European civilization today were trembling from the shocks emanating from the east similar to the disturbances which affected the later Roman empire.

Prof. Peake, addressing the anthropological section of the association said the world today was in a state of unstable equilibrium and fissures in its crust must be stopped or the civilization of the world would break into a thousand pieces.

NEW COMPANIES. Toronto, Sept. 8.—Authorized capital of $14,767,800 is reported by companies whose incorporation was reported to the Monetary Times during the week ended September 2, compared with $14,134,400 the previous week. A summary by provinces for the week ended September 2 follows:

Ontario, $1,847,000; British Columbia, $270,000; Manitoba, $50,000; Ontario, $12,220,000; P. E. Island, $100,000; Quebec, $378,000; Saskatchewan, Alberta and New Brunswick, none.

Chicago Grain Market. Chicago, Sept. 8.—Opening Wheat, September, 100 3/4; December, 102 3/4; Corn, September, 62; December, 58; Oats, September, 35 1/2; December, 35 3/8.

MONTRÉAL STOCK EXCHANGE. Montréal, Sept. 8.—(10.30.)—The local stock market was quiet and steady at the opening this morning. Most stocks were dealt in at around yesterday's close, these including Atlantic Sugar, 2 1/2; National Breweries, 5 1/4; Brazilian, 4 1/4; Price Bros., 46 1/2, and Cement, 75 1/2.

CLAYTON CO. Undertaker, Embalmer. Phone M. 718 81 Princess Street.

NOTICES OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS, 50 CENTS.

BIRTHS. PILE.—To Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Irie, 15 Harding St., Fairville, on Sept. 6, 1922, a daughter, Ellen Mary.

MARRIAGES. ESTABROOK-BACON.—At four o'clock on Sept. 5, Minnie Elmira, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bacon, to Frederick Joseph Estabrook of Centreville.

DEATHS. PIER.—At St. John, N. B., Sept. 6, 1922, Helena M. Pier, aged 18 years, leaving one sister to mourn.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

Rossley Kiddies Imperial Tomorrow. The autumn offering of the Imperial's Juveniles, the Rossley Kiddies will begin at the Imperial tomorrow (Sat.) afternoon at four o'clock. This new show is entitled "Down On The Farm" and is a better singing, dancing and comedy show than ever before and is most elaborately costumed. There are forty-five little ones in the troupe including the wonderful McAlush children, who were brought back from Montreal for the rehearsal and performances. The Rossley Kiddies will appear all next week too, at four in the afternoon and 8.30 at night. The special price scale during this engagement.

SALE NOW ON FOR MONDAY'S CONCERT

There was the usual opening rush for seats at the sale of Boston Symphony Orchestra Ensemble opening at Imperial Theatre this forenoon. The box office is being kept open continuously from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. to accommodate business people proceeding to and from their work. The concert is to be unquestionably the big entertainment event of the season. It is the first high-class musical attraction to be brought to this city since the Chapman Festivals.

SWIFT PLANT AT TORONTO AFIRE

Toronto, Sept. 8.—Half of Toronto's fire-fighting forces battled six hours today to contain a fire which ravaged the sausage and lard rooms in the north-west wing of the Swift Canadian packing plant, Keele and St. Clair streets, in about $148,000 damage to contents and building.

Costly stocks of sausages just prepared for heavy weekend sale were destroyed along with 100 carcasses of beef, besides other meats. A score of firemen were overcome by the smoke and had to stagger to the fire escapes for air to revive themselves. Others slugged out from the narrow passage-ways falling on their way, weak from the terrific heat and smoke. Not in years have the fire fighters met such a stubborn blaze. In some instances their officers had to order them away, and in other cases they had to be relieved. They were driven out four times in thirty minutes and had to lie flat on their stomachs to keep their senses.

LATE SHIPPING. Liverpool, Sept. 7.—Sld, stmr. Canadian Spinner, Montreal. Herk, stmr. Sld, stmr. Empress of Asia, Vancouver. Hamburg, Sept. 4.—Ard, stmr. Generale Pettit, Montreal.

IN LITTLE STREET. New York, Sept. 8.—(10.30.)—Continued improvement in industrial and railroad strike situations was reflected in the strong tone of prices at the opening of today's stock market. New high records for the year were established in the first few minutes of trading by American Woolen, Retail Stores, Pullman, Norfolk and Western, Dupont and Union Bag and Paper, the gains ranging from one to three points. Equipment stocks were in fairly good demand, advancing a point or more in some cases. Under the stimulus of resumed dividend payments, Stromberg Carborundum rose more than a point and a half. Mexican oil recovered from their recent heaviness, Mexican Petroleum mounting a point in the first few sales. Advances in rail shares were largely fractionary, the leaders being Atlantic Coast Line, Rock Island and New York Central. Substantial improvement was noted in International Paper, Houston Oil, General Asphalt, American Metals and Consolidated Gas.

NOON REPORT. New York, Sept. 8.—With the threat of a general strike eliminated from consideration and a complete subsidence of recent professional selling pressure, stocks were bid up in spirited fashion during the morning, the rise extending over a broad list which presaged total sales of well above a million shares. Oils, equipments and motor accessories shares were particularly prominent, gains of from two to nearly four points being registered by Standard Oil of New Jersey, Pullman, Baldwin, Railway Steel Spring, Fisher Body, International Harvester, Dupont, United Drug, Central Leather, preferred, and Lorillard Tobacco. Mexican Petroleum's gain of more than three and a half points accompanied reports that the company was constructing two plants in Mexico for extracting gasoline from natural gas. Call money opened and renewed at four per cent.

THE SEWELL CASE. The jury in the case against Samuel Sewell retired at 12.35 noon today. Addresses of counsel were given by W. M. Ryan for the prosecution and H. A. Powell, K. C., for the defence, and a judge pointed out certain features in a review of the evidence for the jury.

At the afternoon session yesterday evidence for the defence was given by Stewart Kincaid, Allan Daley, Frederick Kincaid, Harry Reynolds, and David Kirkwood.

CARD OF THANKS. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and family wish to express their thanks for kindness and sympathy shown them during their recent sad bereavement.

LOCAL NEWS

All members of Jewel Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., will meet for decoration day on Sunday, 10th, at 3 p. m., Cedar Hill gate. 8929—9—9

Steamer Hampton for Belleisle, Glenwood and way stops, Saturday, 1.30 daylight time.

BEANS! Almost everyone likes them—served one way or another. But have you ever tried Lima beans, the skins deftly removed, and cooked in bechamel sauce? Served this coming week where The Goose Hangs High on the Gondola Point Road.

PERSONALS. Dr. J. Harper Blaisdell, the Boston radium specialist, is expected in St. John tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Munde and Mr. Munde's father, Albert Munde, all of Portland, Maine, motored to St. John this week and are visiting in West St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald King of Chipman who were in the city attending the exhibition held yesterday by automobile on the return home after their trip to Boston.

Mrs. Mottshaw, accompanied by her sisters, the Misses Edith Bessie and Lillian Kernah, left on the Governor in the return home after their trip to Providence, R. I., after visiting friends in St. John.

Mrs. Ernest Cunningham and daughter, Elaine, have returned to St. John. Mrs. Cunningham is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. R. Ritchie, Queen street, Sydney, July and August. Several very pleasant teas and dinners were given in Mrs. Cunningham's honor.

Miss Gladys Mann of St. Stephen is the guest of her uncle, W. H. MacBride, 51 Westwood street.

Among the passengers on the C. P. S. Montrose, which sailed from Montreal for Liverpool today were H. R. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Luck of this city; Mrs. Violet R. Kaulbach and Miss Charlotte Kaulbach of Lunenburg; Major K. McDougall of Halifax, and Arthur Cunningham, B. A., and W. J. Wilson of Montreal and his wife and family, are in the city taking in the exhibition, and are stopping at the Dufferin Hotel where she was the party motored from Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Estabrook and Mrs. B. Frank Myles, vice president and guests of Mrs. G. J. Estabrook, Elliott Row.

Louis Mallette and Stephen King left yesterday for St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown.

Two St. John graduates of St. Joseph University, William McBratney, B. A., and Arthur Cunningham, B. A., have been added to the teaching staff of the college this year.

FREDERICTON ALSO WANTS HIM. Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 8.—A warrant for the arrest of E. R. Moore, alias N. H. Carter, in connection with bank transactions here, has been forwarded to the chief of police of Montreal pending the outcome of a hearing in a case against Moore there.

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 8.—In the police court here today, E. R. Moore appeared for preliminary hearing in connection with charges that he obtained goods under false pretences and that he had forged a check for $210 on the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada.

TAILOR OFFERS TO MAKE SERGE SUIT FOR $45

Don Hunt is celebrating the advent of an imported cutter—Mrs. Clyde A. West, who comes with very high credentials—and with an offer to make up a suit of guaranteed serge for $45 for a limited time only.

The quality of the cloth Mr. Hunt is featuring at this remarkable price is of 18 ounce weight, the purest of wool, fast dyed and with the maker's mark, the selvedge of every length. Colors obtainable are greys and indigo blues.

FIVE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Joseph Murree, charged with breaking and entering and stealing a watch, a sum of money and a pair of boots from the home Mrs. Bates in Sydney street, was this morning sentenced to serve five years in Dorchester penitentiary by Magistrate Ritchie. Murree had consented to accept the jurisdiction of the magistrate's court.

BALFOUR DEFENDS LEAGUE COUNCIL

Geneva, Sept. 8.—A defence of the League of Nation council against criticisms directed at it was made by the Earl of Balfour at the opening of today's discussion in the assembly of the work accomplished by the league.

The adverse criticisms of the council for its method of directing the administration of the Saar Valley, said the earl, who explained that he was speaking as a member of the council but not for its body, were the result of intense propaganda being carried on not only in the Saar but even among the members of the assembly with a view to influencing the public vote to be held to decide the sovereignty of the district.

He was speaking of the renomination of Dr. Hector of Saarland as the representative of the Saar Valley population on the Saar commission. Dr. Hector was charged with falsifying an address from the inhabitants of the Saar to the commission.

The speaker said that he and the Marquis Imperial of Italy had voted in the renomination of Dr. Hector, but that the document in question had been translated by an impartial Dutch translator who found Dr. Hector had given a faithful and correct account of the facts.

The speaker resented the charges that had been made by Dr. Fridolf Nansen that the council had neglected the Russian famine. Charley, he said, had done all that could have been expected in the circumstances. He declared that the Soviet government had gold for other uses at the same time that foreign contributions were being bled for the Russian people.

LATE SPORT NEWS. New York, Sept. 8.—Four Philadelphia pitchers failed to check the Giants' batting in the first game of the series and the champions had little trouble winning, 13 to 6, and holding their advantage over Pittsburgh, when Pirate scout, turned in his twentieth victory of the season.

Cincinnati climbed to third place, outdistancing the White Sox, who had been victorious over St. Louis, behind Rixey's steady pitching.

The American League rivals, St. Louis and New York, were idle while the Chicago White Sox noised out Cleveland, 9 to 8, in ten innings, and the Athletics took a double-header from the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 4 and 3 to 0.

Catcher Yarny, replacing Ray Schalk, who was injured in the tenth, pounded out a homer in his first time at bat to give the White Sox their victory.

HOLIDAY FOR THE PRINCE OF WALES

Spends Much of His Time in Open Air. Plans to Go Hunting in the Winter—More Election Talk in England—Death of Noted Banker—News Topics of London.

(From Our Own Correspondent) London, Aug. 10.—The Prince of Wales is at length able to take a much needed holiday. Though his general health is very good, the strain of his recent tour was greater than generally imagined upon one of such comparatively frail physique, and his medical advisers were insistent upon him taking as much rest as possible. At present the prince is the guest of Captain the Hon. F. E. and Mrs. Guest at Bilton Park, near Rugby, where the annual polo tournament is now taking place, and his Royal Highness will be able to enjoy his favorite pastime. Later, he is to pay one or two other visits to the country houses of some of his personal friends, and he will then return to the country in October, and even these will be limited to the minimum.

His first engagement so far is to be present at a "talk of the Boy Scouts of Greater London at the Crystal Palace on the afternoon of Saturday, October 7, and later in that month he is to attend a luncheon at the residence of the Duke of Devonshire, which will be held in connection with the success that attended his recent tour, and subsequently to take luncheon with the lord mayor and the city corporation. Next month the prince is to visit St. Andrews to "play himself in" as captain of the Amateur and Ancient Golf clubs, and also to receive the freedom of the city and lunch with the provost and civic authorities. By the special request of His Royal Highness, however, the visit is to be regarded as entirely informal, and he will leave St. Andrews on the same day.

Future Plans. During the winter the prince hopes to spend a considerable amount of time hunting, or whether his tragic death by the assassin's bullet at Baden will be followed by the collapse of the treaty settlement. He is now engaged in getting a small stud together. He proposes to rent a hunting-box in some convenient country, where he can stable his horses, and just a few days whenever he can spare the time. Several valuable properties of this description have recently been offered, and he is to be regarded as entirely informal, and he will leave St. Andrews on the same day.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

During the winter the prince hopes to spend a considerable amount of time hunting, or whether his tragic death by the assassin's bullet at Baden will be followed by the collapse of the treaty settlement. He is now engaged in getting a small stud together. He proposes to rent a hunting-box in some convenient country, where he can stable his horses, and just a few days whenever he can spare the time. Several valuable properties of this description have recently been offered, and he is to be regarded as entirely informal, and he will leave St. Andrews on the same day.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

LOCAL NEWS

IN HANDS OF JURY. The jury in the case of Archie, Caswell and Herbert Hamilton, charged with interfering with church services at Brown's Flat, which was resumed this morning in the county court at Hampton before Judge Crockett, retired at about two o'clock this afternoon. The judge's charge to the jury took about two and a half hours.

NEW BOWLING ALLEYS. Bowling enthusiasts will be interested to learn that another large bowling academy will be opened in this city. D. A. Porter has secured the Cameron building in Charlotte street and will install eight of the latest of the Brunswick-Balke-Colander type of alleys. The alleys are due to reach here soon, and it is expected they will be installed by the first of October.

ENGAGEMENTS. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sely of Hampton, N. B., announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Olive, to John William Lundy Mills of Fort William, Ont., the marriage to take place in the near future. Mrs. Julia E. McLaughlin announces the engagement of her daughter, Marion Louise, to Harold B. Gault, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gault, Douglas avenue, the wedding to take place Sept. 18.

AUSTRALIA MAY HAVE COAL STRIKE

London, Sept. 8.—A coal strike, affecting all the Australian colonies, is possible owing to the coal mine owners threatening to enforce a reduction of thirty-three per cent in the wages of the miners, says a despatch to the Times from Melbourne.

MONTRÉAL HEBREWS IN DEMONSTRATION AS MEAT IS DEARER

Montréal, Sept. 8.—Jewish citizens who were the cause of some wild rioting around Kosher butcher shops yesterday because the price of meat had been raised, have dropped the demonstrations and will hold a mass meeting on Sunday to discuss the matter. Meanwhile no one is buying Kosher meat.

His was a very remarkable career which practically made no start until past middle age, when the small square of the best type of former study county M. P., now almost extinct, took the helm of great affairs in times of world crisis, and hobnobbed with cabinet ministers and magnates, who eagerly sought his crystal judgment.

No one likes to say definitely whether Michael Collins' work for Ireland is done, or whether his tragic death by the assassin's bullet at Baden will be followed by the collapse of the treaty settlement. He is now engaged in getting a small stud together. He proposes to rent a hunting-box in some convenient country, where he can stable his horses, and just a few days whenever he can spare the time. Several valuable properties of this description have recently been offered, and he is to be regarded as entirely informal, and he will leave St. Andrews on the same day.

Every indication was that the rebellion was on the point of collapse, and the same day that sees the news of Mr. Collins' death brings a report to the effect that De Valera contemplated issuing a manifesto in favor of constitutional methods. Practically nothing is known of the probable successor to the vacant premiership. Mr. Cosgrave, either in this country or in Ireland.

France and War Criminals. The French government are showing great determination in insisting on the trial of the miscreants. Orders have been issued to give to three court-martial to hear evidence against seventy Germans named in the original French list of war-criminals. The German government reports that many of these cannot be found, hence they could not be tried before the Leipzig court. Nevertheless, French detectives have secured Germany, and are reported to be able to lay their hands at a moment's notice on the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

The Green Mamba. There arrived at Regent's Park last Saturday from East Africa a great number of snakes, and it makes an interesting addition to the inmates of the reptile house. It shares with the humpbacked cobra the reputation of being the most voracious and poisonous of its breed. It is 81 inches long, and a very vivid green in color. The mamba has an unpleasant habit of hiding in the branches and leaves of trees, and will descend with incredible swiftness on the luckless passer-by. Its bite is fatal in six hours. The new arrival, leaving even the attraction of his dinner—a dead mouse—made a savage lunge at my hand, having failed to realize that a sheet of glass interposed between us. Quite the liveliest member of the Zoo is a pure white monkey from Tanganyika, a ceropitheque crowd of visitors. An expert gymnast about with kitten-like grace, and has as playthings an indiarubber ball and a rattle. It is a great source of amusement to crowds of visitors. An expert gymnast is Charlie, a sulphur-crested cockatoo, which after having asked to be let out, and emphasized the request by shaking the latch, will give his performance, your fingers being the trapeze. Hard by another of his kind will dance round and round his cage, with absurdly diverting gestures, and he thoroughly appreciates the laughter of his audience.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.

FIGHTING COAL SETTLEMENT

Vigorous Opposition in the Wilkesbarre Convention—Boston Facilities are Taxed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 8.—So vigorous was the opposition that developed among the delegates from local unions in Potsville, Shamokin, Old Forge and Pittston that Philip J. Murray, international vice-president of the U. M. W. and floor leader for the ratification forces, today at the second day's session of the tri-district convention called to ratify the Pepper-Heed proposal to end the anthracite coal suspension, was expected to have some difficulty in maintaining order.

Despite the opposition, apparently little apprehension prevailed as to the ultimate outcome of the convention. Some leaders, however, expressed a fear that the vote will be delayed until late this afternoon or early tomorrow morning. Calgary, Sept. 8.—With the return of Saunders Creek miners to work yesterday every union mine in District No. 13, U. M. W., is now working steadily. This was the last dispute to be settled in this district and terminated when the operators recognized the check-off system.

Winnipeg, Sept. 8.—A charge made yesterday in Washington that U. S. coal had been sent into Western Canada and then re-shipped into the U. S. at $23 a ton is not credited by prominent Winnipeg coal dealers.

Crowding Boston. Boston, Sept. 8.—Sixteen coal laden vessels flying the British flag were at anchor at quarantine here yesterday, taxing the facilities of the harbor and offering port authorities a puzzle in finding docking space for them. It was predicted that eight additional coal carriers expected within the next forty-eight hours would be obliged to anchor in Nantasket Roads.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Charges that U. S. coal is being shipped to Canada and later sold back to the U. S. at "warrior prices" were made in the House yesterday by Representative Stenerson, Republican, Minnesota.

In a statement issued later Mr. Stenerson submitted a letter received from P. H. Kosen, of Kitchison County, Minn., asserting that coal ordered last spring had not been delivered, but that the Emerson, just across the Canadian line, they apparently have an ample supply of Pennsylvania anthracite.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The senate late yesterday passed and sent to conference the House anti-proiferating coal bill. The vote was forty to seven.

WORLD DRIFT TO ANOTHER WAR

Free Church Leader Calls for Empire Council of Peace in London. London, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Following a remarkable peace sermon by the Archbishop of Canterbury at Geneva on Sunday, comes an appeal for immediate action from a well-known Free Church leader, Doctor Jewett, who in the British Weekly declares that the world is drifting to war again. He urges the churches, Protestant, Roman and Greek to arise from their slumbers and ward off the approaching catastrophe. He suggests that representative leaders of the Christian church meet in councils of peace in every nation, and that the world's body which has in its ranks the ranks of ecclesiastics but the wider realm of commerce, art, literature and labor. Let us have a three days' council at the heart of the empire, not merely to make speeches but to visualize and demonstrate the existence of the corporate body which has in its ranks the ranks of ecclesiastics but the wider realm of commerce, art, literature and labor. Let us have a three days' council at the heart of the empire, not merely to make speeches but to visualize and demonstrate the existence of the corporate body which has in its ranks the ranks of ecclesiastics but the wider realm of commerce, art, literature and labor. Let us have a three days' council at the heart of the empire, not merely to make speeches but to visualize and demonstrate the existence of the corporate body which has in its ranks the ranks of ecclesiastics but the wider realm of commerce, art, literature and labor.

Another Conference of the Dominion and Provincial Governments. Ottawa, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Another conference between dominion and provincial governments lies in the offing—a conference to discuss the important conventions and recommendations adopted at the International Labor Conference of the League of Nations. The question was given considerable discussion at private sessions of the national conference on unemployment, which concluded that the primary subject before the conference was unemployment and that the international labor conventions would be better discussed at a special conference, to be called by the dominion government on request from a majority of provincial governments, "when this may be deemed necessary."

Forty-Eight Convicted Cossacks are Executed. Moscow, Sept. 8.—The forty-eight Cossacks recently convicted in Kiev in connection with an uprising against the Ukrainian government have been executed, appeals entered in their behalf having been denied.

N. S. Employment. Halifax, N. S., Sept. 8.—The monthly report of the four officers of the unemployment service in Nova Scotia shows a total of 852 placements for the month. At the end of August a total of 1380 men and women were keeping up their registration at the four offices, this being a decline of 400 as compared with the previous month, and a decline of 800 as compared with June.

More Election Talk. A very old parliamentary hand told me that for the first time he is disposed to pay serious attention to the renewed talk of a coming general election, the prime minister's closing speeches of this session have had general election written all over them, and he is expected to give the majority of the seventy. In every instance it is intended to give the German government itself an opportunity to hand over the accused before trial. But if the accused are not willing to come voluntarily, evidence will be taken in their absence, and as soon as the penalty is announced formal demand for their extradition will be forwarded to Berlin.