

WORRIED OVER GERMAN DEFEAT, WESTERN FARMER KILLS HIS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Bredenburg, Sask., Sept. 6.—Christian Dressler, a young and prosperous farmer living ten miles northeast of here, shot and instantly killed his wife and then committed suicide. It is said that his mind had become suddenly unsettled worrying over recent German reverses. He leaves two small children.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Tobin-Jones.
A quiet wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. G. F. Dawson in Exmouth street on Wednesday, September 4, when Miss Jessie B. Jones was united in marriage to Edgar J. Tobin. The bride was attired in a navy blue suit with hat to match. After the wedding a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The bride and groom were unattended. They received many handsome presents of cut glass and silver.

Duffley-McLaughlin.
On Wednesday morning, September 4, Rev. Arthur Allen united in marriage Robert Eugene Duffley, of Golden Grove, and Mary Ellen McLaughlin, of Quispamsis. The bride was supported by her sister, Mrs. Ketchum, and the groom by his brother, George L. Duffley.

HAVE DESTROYED 465 GERMAN AIR MACHINES IN THE LAST FOUR WEEKS

Two Hundred Others Sent

Sixty-one Hun Balloons Set Afire and 911 Tons of Bombs Were Dropped — Our Losses 262 Airplanes

London, Sept. 6.—The official statement on aerial operations issued last night says:
"Much reconnaissance and photographic work was accomplished by the air forces on Sept. 4, and a large number of artillery and contact patrols were carried out. The weight of bombs dropped by us during the day was twenty-three tons. No bombing was possible after dark.
"Enemy machines, working in large formations on the German side of the lines, showed considerable activity. Twenty-five hostile machines were brought down by our airmen and no fewer than nine balloons were shot down in flames. In addition, fourteen hostile machines were driven down out of control. Sixteen of our machines are missing.
"One of our machines, reported as missing in the fighting of Sept. 2, has since returned.
"In the course of the weeks which have elapsed since the commencement of our offensive on Aug. 8, 465 enemy machines have been brought down by our airmen. Their destruction in every case has been clearly established. In addition the total of enemy machines proved to have been driven down out of control, many of which must actually have crashed, is exactly 200. These figures are exclusive of the considerable number of enemy machines brought down by gunfire from the ground.
"Sixty-one German balloons have been set on fire. Nine hundred and eleven and one-half tons of bombs have been dropped by us.
"Practically the whole of the air fighting has taken place on the enemy's side of the line. The number of our machines which have failed to return in these fights is 262."

GETTING POTASH FROM BLAST FURNACE DUST

Britain May be Able to Secure
Enough Thus to Meet Country's Needs

London, Sept. 6.—(Via Reuter's).—The board of trade journal publishes a remarkable article on the British supplies of potash, showing the important progress which has been made during the war in the production of potash in Great Britain.
One of the most startling sources of the new supply is from blast furnace dust from which potash is obtained by a cheap and simple process consisting primarily in addition of a small proportion of common salt to the charge of the furnace which releases the potash present in the ore and causes it to be volatilized with the emerging gases as potassium chloride.
As the result of experiments on a large scale it has been estimated that it would be possible to recover 60,000 tons of potash salts per annum from blast furnace dust alone, enough practically to meet the needs of the country.
A factory already has been erected at Oldbury near Birmingham, designed to produce 400 to 500 tons of potassium chloride weekly from blast furnace dust and a conversion factory is to be added where chloride, not needed for agriculture, may be converted into other refined potash salts. Other factories are in contemplation.

LONDON FEARS REPORT OF ATTACK ON CONSULATE AT MOSCOW IS TRUE

London, Sept. 5.—While the report of an attack on the British consulate at Moscow has not been confirmed, it is felt in diplomatic circles that it is only too likely to be true, and anxiety exists over the fate of the acting consul-general, R. H. Lockhart, and J. O. Wardrop, the consul, who have been waiting at Moscow for safe conduct.
It appears that the Soviet government insisted that M. Litvinoff, Bolshevik ambassador to Great Britain, should be sent to Bergen before it would agree to issue permission for Mr. Lockhart and Mr. Wardrop to depart. The British government declined to agree to such an arrangement.

LUDENDORF THANKFUL THAT FIGHTING IS NOT ON GERMAN GROUND

Amsterdam, Sept. 6.—Vienna newspapers received here continue to print interviews with Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff.
"The war has now been concentrated upon French territory," General Ludendorff is quoted as saying, "and by the enormous utilization of troops and materials has assumed proportions which have thrown everything hitherto accomplished in the shade. We thus far have stood the bitter struggle honorably and are confident that we will continue to do so."
"We may all be thankful that war is the form it has assumed has on the whole been spared us in our home territory. The armies of the Central Powers are safeguarding their homes."

INCREASED WAGE SCALE

Commencing with Saturday chauffeurs and teamsters about the city expect to draw their wages under a new schedule, which is as follows—$16 per week for single teams; $18 for double teams; $20 for chauffeurs; $15 for stablemen; $15 for helpers. The above is the minimum rate and those who are already getting this are entitled to a ten per cent increase. A special meeting will be held in the evening to ascertain what employers if any refuse to meet the demand.

In honor of her approaching marriage, a novelty show was tendered Miss Elizabeth Wallace at the home of Miss MacNeill, Cliff street, last evening by about thirty of her friends.

OWNED BY BERNSTORFF

It is Said He Bought 'Fair Play' as Dummy in Shady Transactions
New York, Sept. 4.—Count H. von Bernstorff, the former German Ambassador at Washington, was the sole owner in 1915 and 1916 of a paper published in New York city. It was a pro-German weekly known as Fair Play, edited by Marcus Braun, who was the ostensible publisher. Bernstorff bought the paper from Braun for $10,000, this being all the cash represented in the publishing company, although it was capitalized at $200,000. The "dummy" for Bernstorff in the transaction was Archibald S. White, a broker of New York and Cleveland, to whom was turned over the stock certificates of the company.

The fact that Bernstorff was the owner, in 1916, of Fair Play, which has since ceased publication, and that Mr. White, who was prominent in Wall Street at the time, was the "dummy" in

Made-To-Measure Garments Tailored To Fit Are Cheaper Now Than Ready-Made Clothes

As everybody knows, woollens that were woven two or three years ago are far better quality than any that have been made since. Such woollens are now selling at twice their original price.

But the English & Scotch Woollen Co. are still able to supply suit and overcoat patterns in these 1915 and 1916 fabrics—and we have not advanced the price to correspond with their present value.

You can order from us, made-to-measure custom tailored perfect fitting garments made from these high grade fabrics, at our standard prices, that are actually 50% less than you will be asked to pay for ready-made clothes made from cloths that cannot be as good.

The clothes you buy now should be bought with particular attention to their durability. The prices of ready-made clothes have doubled, and the fabrics have declined in quality.

Our Made-to-Measure custom tailored garments are a thrifty investment.

IN all seriousness and in your interest as well as our own, this is our advice—ORDER NOW, two or three suits and a good, protecting overcoat against the time when prices will be doubled, as they surely will. Even now our offer is one that we do not believe is being equalled by any tailoring concern anywhere—a thoroughly dependable suit or overcoat, made to your individual measure from imported fabrics of your own choosing, at $17. Neither do we believe that any ready-made store is offering at twice our price as much in quality and workmanship as we assure you. You will be wise to act on our advice and order as many suits as you can spare the money for now.
