Celebration of 100 Years of Peace St. John and Other New Brunswick Citizens Who Are Identified With the Movement

The movement for celebrating the hundred years of peace between the British Empire and the United States is, judging by a circular just issued by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association, taking rapid hold in Canada, Great Britain and the United States. The general proposals contain four main features, (1) Monuments and other memorials, (2) Thanksgiving services in the churches, (3) Educational propaganda, (4) Festivities. The circular enumerates various suggestions regarding the erection of monuments, and states that the matter has been referred to an international committee. February 14, 1915, has been selected for thanksgiving services in all the churches of the British empire and the United States. This date is the nearest Sunday to February 15, 1915, the centenary of the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent. The educational propaganda includes several important features, among which may be mentioned the preparation of a series of pamphlets dealing with the various treaties which have made the long peace possible, which it is intended to send to all the schools in Canada. Tabernacles and masques are in course of preparation which will also be sent to the schools for production upon a date to be hereafter arranged. A somewhat unique proposal is that schools in Canada and the United States in place bearing the same name should be invited to exchange shields. It is intended to arrange for the writing of competitive essays on Anglo-American relations, and provision is being made for Provincial and Dominion prizes. About 100 centres have been chosen for special celebrations in Canada and strong local committees have been arranged for in a majority of those. The circular also reports the progress made in Great Britain and the United States and contains replies received last Christmas from world rulers to a message sent in connection with the celebration by the American committee. The dominion government has arranged for an appropriation to meet the preliminary organization expenses. In announcing this the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden said: "The cause which the Canadian Peace Centenary Association and the corresponding bodies in the United Kingdom and the United States have set before them is one with which we are warmly sympathetic. It is a triumph of humanity that during a century of rapid development, despite the existence of serious international differences and problems, the British Empire and the United States have found wiser and more humane methods of adjusting differences than the arbitrament of war. We welcome the achievement of a century of peace, and hope that it will prove to be but the first century of peace for the forerunner of a long series stretching into the future as far as human anticipation can trust itself. The list of members is a most representative one and contains the names of all the lieutenant-governors, all the ministers of education and nearly all the premiers in Canada. Among those prominent in this province, who have identified themselves with this movement, may be mentioned: Lieut. Gov. Wood, Hon. J. K. Fleming, Hon. D. Y. Landry, Hon. James Murray, Hon. George J. Clarke, Chief Supt. Carter and the following: St. John—The mayor, president of the Board of Trade, Rev. A. J. Archibald, Sir Frederic Barker, Senator Daniels, Mrs. H. Lawrence, Miss Grace Leavitt, Justice McKeown, E. W. McCready, H. A. Powell, Mrs. M. A. Sheffield, M. G. Ford, Senator Thorne. Fredericton—The mayor, president of the Board of Trade, Justice Barry, Justice Crockett, C. F. Chestnut, W. S. Hoopes, John T. Jennings, Chancellor Jones, George M. McDade, H. F. McLeod, M. P., Bishop Richardson, Rev. W. H. Smith. Moncton—The mayor, president of the Board of Trade, C. H. Boudreau, A. Chagnon, J. E. Cochran, E. Cole, W. K. Gross, J. T. Hawk, F. A. McCully, George K. Oulton. St. Stephen—The mayor, president of the Board of Trade, Mrs. George J. Clarke, A. D. Ganson, G. W. Ganson, J. Whidden, Graham, R. W. Grimmer, P. G. MacFarlane, James Vroom. Campbellton—The mayor, president of the Board of Trade, F. M. Anderson, A. A. Andrew, A. E. G. McKennie, Judge McLatchy, L. J. Pineault, Rev. J. E. Purdie, J. T. Reid. St. George—The mayor, I. H. Taylor, M. P. F. St. Andrews—M. N. Cockburn, T. A. Hart, M. P. Milltown—Mayor A. McDonald, F. C. Marchie. Preliminary arrangements for festivities have been made and local committees arranged for in all the towns named and if the city councils and citizens desire it the like will be done for Chatham, Edmundston and Woodville. The president of the Canadian Peace Centenary Association is Sir Edmund Walker, of Toronto, and the honorary secretary, Major C. F. Hamilton of Ottawa. Those desiring copies of the circular should address E. H. Scammell, organizing secretary, Hope Chambers, Ottawa.

TOMB OF OSIRIS

Noted Egyptologist Says No Doubt About Discovery

NINE YARDS UNDERGROUND

Large Building of Granite and Very Hard Sandstone Found and in it Funerary Chamber of Egyptian King-god

Paris, June 18.—Professor Edward Naville, an Egyptologist who has been directing 600 men and boys in excavations to unearth the temple and tomb of Osiris, has returned to his chair at the University of Geneva elated with the belief that he has penetrated the actual funeral chamber of the ancient Egyptian king-god, and that another winter's work which is already assured under auspices of the Anglo-American Egyptian Exploration Company, will bring to light important details bearing upon the history of Osiris. The legend is that Osiris, a wise and beneficent king who reclaimed the Egyptians from savagery, met a sudden and premature death by the scheming of his wicked brother, Seth, who, with seven-two fellow conspirators, invited Osiris to a banquet and induced him to enter a cunningly-wrought coffin. They shut down the lid and cast the chest and its body into the Nile. Isis, faithful wife of the beloved king recovered the body of the legend continues that Seth and his fellow conspirators then cut the body into fourteen pieces, and scattered the parts all over Egypt—each piece being entombed by worshippers of Osiris—which accounts for the numerous tombs to him. The faithful Isis, however, reassembled the pieces and brought them back to the Temple of Abydos. This temple where Professor Naville has been conducting the excavations, is, he is sure, the true burial place of Osiris. The place is about equidistant between Cairo and Assuan, in the desert about eight miles westward from the Nile. Professor Naville believes this temple is older even than the Pyramids. Relating some details of his work to the Associated Press correspondent at Geneva, he said: "We worked from December 24, 1913 to March 11, 1914, and during the eleven weeks we experienced some anxiety and excitement. At nine yards under the soil we found a large building constructed of granite and very hard red sandstone. This edifice is divided into three naves, which are surrounded by sixteen large cells all identical in size and shape. They have no inscriptions on the walls whatever. This proves that the building is very ancient as the walls of more modern edifices in Egypt are covered with inscriptions. "In front of the cells is a stone platform supported by ten huge blocks of granite. Skirting this platform we came upon the reservoir—or well of Osiris, which undoubtedly is the menhir by the Roman historian, Strabo. While the reservoir has not yet been explored, it is probable that its waters had been popular at one time for their supposed curative virtues. "On the opposite side of the temple to that where we entered we found the burial place of Osiris, as the Book of the

You swing on "joy makin's!"

Get it into your mind pretty quick that Prince Albert is just as bully delicious rolled up into a cigarette as jammed into a jimmy pipe—and that means going some, too. Just to change your luck, switch for a spell from the dust-brands and fire-brands and know first hand what a real and true makin's cigarette can taste like when you get the brand of tobacco that millions of men pin their faith to—

PRINCE ALBERT the inter-national joy smoke

It's all out of fashion now-a-days for men to suffer with a stung tongue or a parched throat. Because Prince Albert is scot-free from that sort of thing.

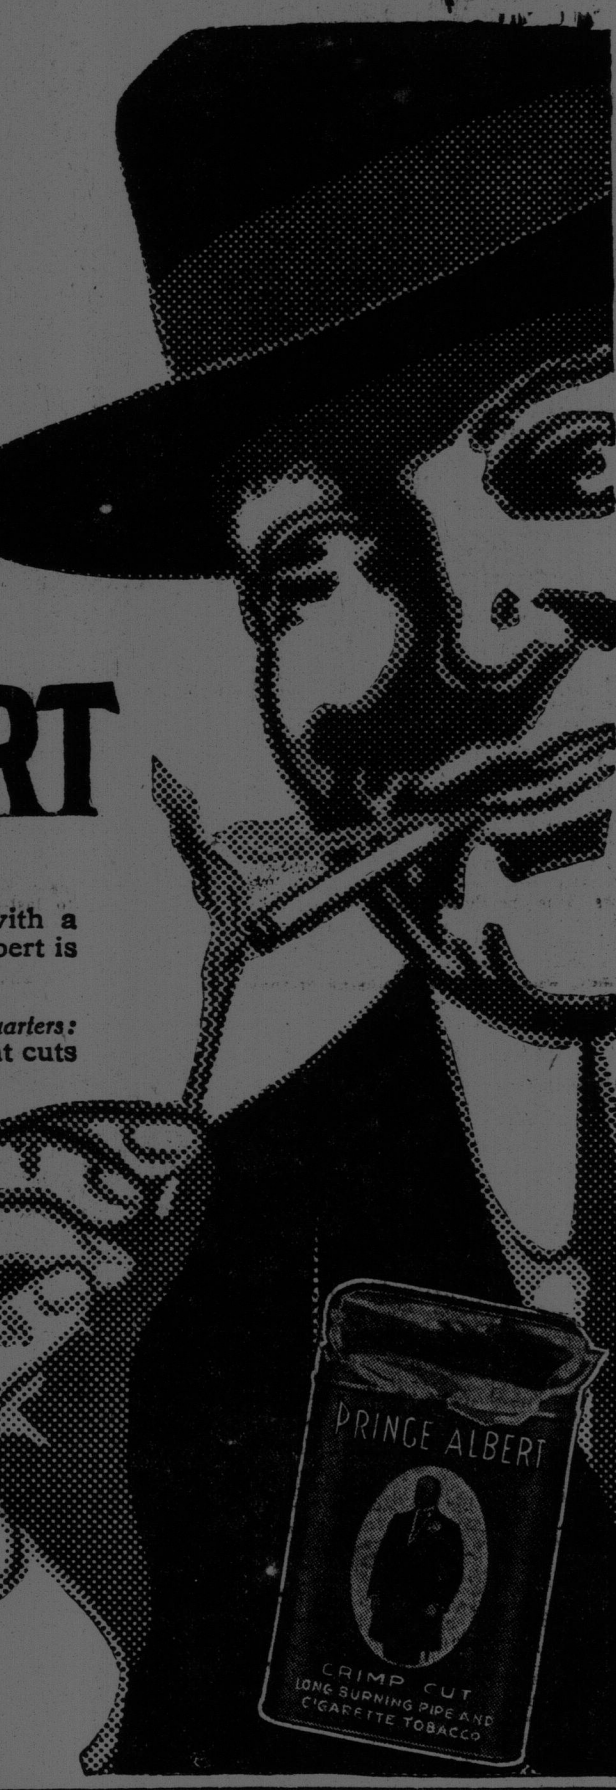

If you didn't know it before, get this news direct from headquarters: Prince Albert tobacco is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and the parch. It's just all-good with a flavor and a fragrance and freshness unequalled by any other brand at any price!

Men, that's some talk—some talk, but it's right and it's up to you to prove it.

Do you figure for a minute that in five years Prince Albert would have become the largest selling pipe and cigarette tobacco in the United States if it was not all we claimed for it? Just lay a bet right here that P. A. will give you absolutely what you've hunted for years, either in a pipe or a cigarette. And that goes! Right now's the time, too, while the "listen" is in your system.

Prince Albert is imported into Canada by wholesale dealers, and is on sale, in one-eighth-pound tins and red tins, by all of the leading retail dealers.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weak and Dizzy Spells. Heart Would Beat Something Awful.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells which come over people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded. They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious. Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady. Mrs. Len. Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes—"I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart would beat something awful. I got so I had those spells every day. I got so I would try one medicine, and then another, but nothing did me any good until I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took, for I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking, and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills." Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ANOTHER GIANT LINER IN COLLISION AT SEA

Southampton, England, June 17.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, which left Southampton shortly after noon today, bound for New York with 1,000 passengers lies at anchor tonight off Netley, three miles to the southeast, with a big hole in her side amidships caused by a collision with the Liverpool grain steamer Inconnore, bound from a Black Sea port for Antwerp. The Inconnore, a much smaller craft than the German steamer, of 8,000 odd tons, is in dock here with her bows badly smashed. Busy Parrsboro. Parrsboro is proving the busiest spot in Cumberland this summer. Five steamers carrying about sixteen million feet of deal have already been loading at that port, and two other steamers are expected shortly. There will be shipped from the port of Parrsboro to the English market fully forty million feet of deal this season and large shipments will also be made to the American market. There has, too, been a marked revival in coal shipments and Parrsboro is enjoying an exceptional busy summer. Labor is reported to be decidedly scarce. George J. Markey, a contractor doing city work in Clinton street, Milwaukee, sheltered his men under umbrellas during the recent hot spell.

Dead and the inscription on the walls of the funeral chamber, twenty yards by five, proved to us beyond all doubt. You can imagine that we were greatly delighted at the discovery. "We found also that in some remote past Egyptian thieves had been at work there. They had entered the funeral chamber by piercing a hole in the wall, but of course it will never be known what the thieves carried away. Did they take the sarcophagus of Osiris? All Egyptologists in the course of their researches in the ruins of Egypt have come across traces of thieves who were considered to be the cleverest in the then known world. They formed themselves into associations and gangs with the special object of robbing tombs, as it was the ancient custom among Egyptians to bury valuables with their dead. There was a supervision of the tombs, but this the thieves seem to have avoided easily, judging by their exploits. "The whole of the vast edifice we discovered is in a bad state of ruin, because it and its surroundings were used as a quarry in the time of Rameses II." Professor Naville, who is an elderly man, insisted upon paying honor to his "brave assistants" Messrs. Wainwright and Gibson of London, and Thomas Wiltmore of Tufts College, Massachusetts. After eight years' work Miss Irma Cox has completed the task of copying 150,000 diagrams of real estate surveys which were partially destroyed by fire in 1906, thereby giving a complete history of original surveys of every lot in San Francisco from 1862 to 1906. Miss Cox found it necessary to split every piece of the paper by hand and to mount each separate sheet on a linen slate so that it could be handled. The police and railway authorities at the station of Basle, Switzerland, have been searching for the last two months for the criminal who has been giving the regulation whistle for the departure of trains from the depot at regular hours and thereby endangering the traffic. The culprit was found last week in a blackbird, which had built a nest inside the depot and learned to imitate the guard's
