HANSON FINED $50 OR THREE MONTHS IN COUNTY JAIL

Self-Appointed C. P. R. Detective in Court—A St. Stephen End to the Case

Searl Hanson, aged eighteen who was arrested several days ago by Detective Walsh at Sand Point, and charged with vagrancy, was brought before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning and was fined $50 or three months in jail. Hanson, who had been in the hands of the C. P. R. detective's badge and made himself officious. When a passenger steamer arrived he was on hand, inspecting the baggage and looked after baggage for some of the passengers. Detective Walsh interested himself and found out that Hanson was not employed by the C. P. R. He was consequently arrested and charged with vagrancy.

In court this morning he was represented by H. J. Smith and E. C. Weyman appeared for the prosecution. It had been the intention of the prosecution to place a more serious charge against the prisoner, but he pleaded guilty to the vagrancy and the other matter was allowed to drop.

A. R. Foster, C. P. R. detective, was in court with a warrant to take Hanson to St. Stephen on the charge of stealing some goods from the C. P. R. there. It appears that Hanson had been sojourning at Wilson's Hotel in St. Stephen for part of the winter and pursued his "detective" practices there. It is said he had C. P. R. employes there on the jump and had reported several of them including a section foreman, to William Dowrie, superintendent of the C. P. R. At St. Stephen. It is alleged that he and several other St. Stephen youths took a hand car one night and took it up the line, stopping at a store house and taking several articles. It is not likely, however, that he will be taken to St. Stephen. It was said today that he had implicated several others, however, and they would be proceeded against.

Hanson belongs on the West Side and had frequently been employed on construction work with the C. P. R. When arrested he had in his possession many blank C. P. R. forms and some Allan Line letterheads. He also had a letter signed "Jack the Ripper," and a pair of steel handcuffs.

W. G. PUGSLEY SPEAKS OF MONTREAL INTEREST IN DEVELOPMENT HERE

Wm. G. Pugsley, of Montreal, arrived in the city this morning accompanied by Howard R. Richey also of Montreal and registered at the Royal. Mr. Pugsley will leave on his return this evening. He had noted with satisfaction, he said, the fact that St. John was gaining in confidence in Upper Canada with those who took an interest in real estate and interest in development in this city and direct vicinity was each day becoming more keen. Articles which had appeared in Montreal papers had been helpful to start the people talking about St. John and its prospects, and he believed if an active advertising policy were more extensively carried out than at present, the results would soon be favorable to St. John. The extension and development of St. John, which had already appeared in the Montreal press, he said, had done much to create a reasonable discussion and interest in this city, but he thought even more of this should be done.

CIVIL COURT INCIDENT.
An interesting incident transpired in the police court this morning when civil court cases were being heard. In one of the cases, which was for assessment on a promissory note, it was announced by H. W. Robertson that the case had been settled and the money paid into the court. The money was about to be handed over to the plaintiff when Mr. Robertson raised an objection, stating that he, as counsel, should receive the money. An argument ensued, in which A. A. Wilson said that he was acting for the plaintiff and that Mr. Robertson was not. Mr. Wilson argued that his learned friend had not been engaged in the matter and had no right to sue for the amount. Mr. Robertson said that he had been engaged in the case by the plaintiff himself, and would make an affidavit to that effect. The case was set aside until this afternoon.

We Want to Call Your Attention to the Quality of the Fabrics and Tailoring Which We've Put Into Our Men's $25 Spring Suits

These Are Features That Make Our $25.00 Suits the Equal of Those Sold Elsewhere at $30 and More

Good cloth is the foundation of all good clothing, unless the fabric is good, the smartest style and the most careful tailoring will go for naught—as many a man, who has bought clothing just because it looked well, has learned to his regret.

It takes good cloth plus good tailoring to make clothing that will prove satisfactory in wear as well as in looks.

These $25.00 Suits are examples of our use of superior fabrics, combined with high-class tailoring and absolutely correct styling.

We know—and investigation will prove it to anyone that we use better fabrics in our $25.00 Suits than are used in any suits sold elsewhere in Saint John up to $30.00 and in very few even at this price are the fabrics as good.

We also know that no Suits shown anywhere this season have more snap and go to them than these, and no other store can show such a large variety of the newest styles, patterns and color effects.

You will certainly do yourself an injustice to buy elsewhere before looking through our stock.
