NOVELTY SHOWER.

Miss Bessie Harding of 88 Stanley street, was agreeably surprised last evening when her friends called and presented to her a novelty shower, which is greatly appreciated in consequence of an event which will take place in the near future.

IN PRIVATE CAR
Attached to the Boston express at noon today was the private car "Independence" in which were Lewis Cabot and party, of Boston, passing through the city on an annual fishing trip to lakes in the northern part of the province. They will leave for the north shore this evening.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE

Fire in a three story brick building in Drury lane last night did damage amounting to about $100 to the furniture of Mrs. Mary Happenney and the goods in the lower flat were considerably damaged by water. The building is owned by the Daniel Rooney estate, and occupied by Mrs. Mary Sullivan, John Bent, Mrs. Mary Happenney, William Shannon and James Happenney. The damage to the building is estimated at about $200.

Doherty-Hasel.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning when Rev. Arthur W. Mexhan united in marriage Miss Margaret L. Hazel, daughter of Mrs. K. Hazel, of Union street, and Robert Doherty, and the bride was given away by her brother, Charles Hazel, and was becomingly attited in a cuit of cream cloth with baby Irish trimmings, and large white picture hat trimmed with Ostrich feathers. She carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Kathrine Hazel, gister of the bride, and a large black hat trimmed with lace and cream roses. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by his cousin, Frank Cotter.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the brides mother in Union street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The house was handsomely decorated with ferns, apple blossome and plants. After breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Doherty left by boat on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, Philadelphis and other cities in the United States. On their return they will reside in Horsfield street.

Both the bride and groom are very popular in social circles in the city, and they received many handsome and costly presente of cut glass, silverware, etc., from friends and relatives. The groom's present of the bridesmaid was a gold watch and fob and to the groomman a stick pin. The groom is one of the most popularyoung pilots at this port. The pilot boat Howard D. Troop was decorated today with flags and bunting in honor of his wedding.

O'Keefe-McGillicuddy.

In St. Peter's church at six o'clock this morning a pretty wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Duke, C. SS. R., when he united in marriage Patrick O'Keefe McGillicuddy of Main street. Friends gathered to witness the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Frederick, was nicely dreased in a blue travelling costume w

SHOULD BE LOOKED INTO.

A young lad charged with being one of a disorderly crowd in Durham street last night and also with placing barrels on a bon-fire, was in the police court today. According to the evidence he occupied a cell all last night with a man arrested for drunkenness. His mother told the court that she did not think it right that her son should have to be placed in a cell with a drunken man.

Case.

I also wish to emphatically deny a characterize as base slanders and lies the this or other meetings were arranged be the Liberal party, or that I am in collustion with the Liberal party. It is unfail to the Liberal party and a slander on the temperance workers, and in order to show that there is no politics in this I will postpone this and all other meetings in Kings county until after the election. I will then meet and discuss this great moral issue.
