done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For only 75 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphúr Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphúr Compound and look years younger.

Quarterly Session of Main Street Baptist Sunday School Last Evening

The Sunday school reported a very successful year with 550 members enrolled and $1.321.75 raised during the year. The Women's Missionary Society raised $1,014.13. The trustee board reported extensive repairs had been made in church property at a cost of $950.

The nominating committee's report was adopted and included two new committees, the building committee and publicity committee.

Among those elected were the following: Church clerk, Philip McA. Simms; treasurer, E. Clinton Brown; church accountant, Emery A. Titus;

The recent tea given by the Door keeper's Circle of the King's daughters was the most successful event the circle has yet held, it was shown in reports given at the meeting of the circle yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Logie.

Tre president, Mrs. J. William Hart, was in the chair and the meeting was largely attended. The report on the Christmas giving was especially gratifying and showed that a large number of homes had been reached. Mrs. C. F. Sanford conducted a bible study class during the meeting and the subject of the afternoon was "Job."

Arrangements were made for the annual meeting which well be held next week at the home of Mrs. W. A. Nicholas. The recent tea given by the Door-

"IRISH LUCK," a drama against a background of modern Erin, has a swift-moving plot, suspense thrills and heart-interest—and more—it has Tom Meighan in a dual role. Tom Geraghty adapted the story from Norman Venner's Saturday Evening Post serial, "An Imperfect Imposter." It gives a comprehensive record, in pictorial form, of the Killarney district, including Ross Castle, Muchross Abbey, Colleen Bawn Rock, Brickseen Bridge, and the Meeting of the Waters, and also the famous Blarney Castle in Cork, Slane Castle overlooking the site of the Battle of Boyne, and many other scenes of historic interest.
