A TOTAL WRECK.—A despatch from Charlottetown, P. E. I., says the schr. "Fiona," from Newfoundland to Miramichi, is ashore on Crapaud bar. There are seven feet of water in her hold. She has been condemned, and ordered to be sold. The "Fiona" has 600 barrels of barrels on board.

In a small boat from the shore. This was about 10 p. m.

I wish to make my protest against a state of things which allows vessels approaching such a port as Miramich to be subjected to neglect of this kind, especially when the pilotage is compulsory and liberally paid for. Fortunately, the night was bright and fine, and had the busys been in the position as marked on the chart, and the Light Ship anchored on the south side of the Chancel, as also marked (she is now on the north side) I sold.
