Such is the opinion of Mrs. P. Lussier of Sorel, Que., and it is because of this that she gave the following statement to a representative of Le Sorelois. "For some time past," she said "I had been suffering from a malady that at first I could not define, but which proved to be a severe attack of dyspesia. After each meal I felt a sensation of over fullness, even when I had eaten most sparingly. This feeling was accompanied by severe pains in the region of the St. John Free Public library now contains 11,113 volumes, among which are many valuable works of reference.
