

ST. JOHN STAR.

Read Classified Ads
on Page 3.

VOL. 6, NO. 270;

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1906.

EIGHT PAGES.

ONE CENT

GOLF CLUBS.

Just arrived: A new lot of Spalding Gold Medal Clubs, the most perfectly made and balanced club we can get. Gold Medal Irons, $2.00 each. Gold Medal Drivers and Brasses, $2.50 each. Kempshall Flyer Balls. Kempshall Arlington Balls. Kempshall White-Made Balls. White Vulcan Balls. Royal Balls. Re-Covered Arlington Balls.

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Ice Cream Freezers!

The AMERICAN "TWIN" FREEZER, the latest and newest. It freezes, and freezes quickly, two flavors of ice cream, or an ice cream and a sherbert, and an ice-cream at one time in one freezer. 3-qt. size, $1.90; 4-qt. size, $2.20; 6-qt. size, $3.20. Also the old-time favorite, the "White Mountain," in all sizes from one pint to twenty quarts.

Emerson & Fisher
25 Germain St., St. John, N. B.
Everything marked in plain figures. "One price only."

SALE OF MEN'S PANTS!

Fifteen hundred pairs of Men's Pants, made up from fine All-Wool Tweeds and Worsteds in the very latest patterns. Up-to-date in style. Perfect fit guaranteed. Genuine Bargains. See our window display.

American Clothing House,
NEW STORE,
11-15 Charlotte St.

STETSON HATS

The Famous John B. Stetson Hard and Soft Hats!
They need no introduction. This hat is sold by all others at $5.00. We sell it for $4.00. The only house in the lower Provinces where you can buy it at this price.

F. S. THOMAS, Dufferin Block,
Main St., N. E.

CHILD SWALLOWS
A BUTTON HOOK

LONDON, July 31.—An inquest was held at Tottenham last night on Edith Mary Wood, 2 years old, who swallowed a button hook several inches long. It was removed by an operation, but the child subsequently died.

A DOCTOR'S MISTAKE.

LONDON, July 28.—William John Roberts was sentenced yesterday at Bow street to six months' hard labor for forgery. It was stated that some years ago he was a man of some means and several doctors told him he had not long to live. He immediately set about spending all his money, and when it was gone he recovered.

BOYS' SAILOR SUITS
At 90c, $1.50, $1.85 and 2.35.

We have a lot of Boys' Sailor Suits which we have decided to clear at greatly reduced prices. They are made from Blue Serge of good quality. 2 SPECIAL LINES, 90c AND $1.50.
$2.25 SUIT FOR $1.85; $2.50 SUIT FOR $1.85.
$3.00 SUIT FOR $2.35; $3.50 SUIT FOR $2.35.
These Suits fit Boys 3 to 9 years.

J. N. HARVEY, Clothing and Furnishings,
199 to 207 Union St.

URGE HUB TO AID
IRISH EXPOSITION.

Delegates from the Emerald Isle Touring America.

Seek Display from Boston and Bay State—Want Shipment of Historical Relics—Are Much Encouraged

BOSTON, July 30.—The Very Rev. Patrick Lalley of Galway, and Col. C. M. Hackett of Dublin, arrived in Boston yesterday and will be in the city several days representing the historical section of the international exposition at Dublin, which is to open in May, 1907. It is probable that they will appoint a committee of local Irishmen to look after the interests of the exposition in this vicinity, and during their stay in Boston they will also endeavor to secure a number of exhibits. The Rev. J. Phelan, of Sibley, Ia., is with the representatives, having travelled with them from New York as a member of the committee in charge of the United States share of the exposition. Col. Hackett and Fr. Lalley spent the day yesterday at the home of James McGeehan of Woburn, an old friend of the latter. The men had not seen each other in over 20 years, in fact since their boyhood days in Ireland, and most of the day was spent in reminiscences and talking over old times. They were both very cordial and they have met many old friends. Fr. Lalley and Col. Hackett arrived in New York some 10 days ago and since then have visited Saratoga, Washington and Philadelphia. Their reception in each of these places has been very cordial and they have met many old friends. Fr. Lalley is well known in Ireland for the interest he has taken in the technical education of the youth of that country. Col. Hackett is also well known and has a beautiful place just outside Dublin. Both have taken a great part in the preparation for the exposition, which will be held in Dublin, and they are both very anxious to do much for the industrial condition of Ireland in general.

MUTINY BROKE OUT IN FORTRESS

Garrison of Svedborg in a Turmoil—Loyal Troops Defeated.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 31.—It is reported that a mutiny broke out at midnight last night in the fortress of Svedborg, on the coast of Finland. The officers' families and the wounded are said to have been sent to Helsingfors. LONDON, July 31.—A despatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, says that a portion of the garrison of Svedborg, mutinied last night and that a long and sanguinary struggle took place between the mutineers and the loyal troops, in which the former were said to have been victorious. The mutineers, it is added, are now in possession of the fortress. Many were killed or wounded during the fighting.

STREET RAILWAY
STRIKE IN BEDFORD

Cars Running on all Lines on Schedule Time Today.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 31.—The eighth day of the street railway men's strike opened this morning with the situation virtually at a standstill. The railway officials were operating the cars about on the usual schedule with the aid of outside breaking motormen and conductors brought from other cities while the union men steadfastly clung to their demand for a wage increase and recognition of the union. The company announced that cars would be run on all lines according to the regular schedule today and that the police guards would be dispensed with during the daylight hours. The decrease in stone throwing and other forms of disturbance has made it unnecessary to continue the practice of having a policeman on each car.

LIFE OF BANK NOTES.

LONDON, July 31.—A bank clerk, giving evidence in the King's Bench division yesterday, said the average life of Bank of England notes was from ten to sixty days, but that the bank had one which was out for 111 years.

DEATH IN THE SWING.

LONDON, July 31.—The 2-year-old daughter of Walter O. Dove, R. N., was found yesterday lying dead across a swing rope in her father's garden at Devonport with her neck entangled. It is supposed that the child slipped while swinging on the rope, and was unable to extricate herself from the twisted coil.

Chilton Hats $1.00 at J. MacLaughlin, 107 Charlotte street.

BURNS MEMORIAL COMMITTEE MEETS

Session Held in Fredericton This Morning.

Ceremony of Unveiling Statue Postponed Until September 13th on Account of St. John Exhibition.

(Special to the Star.)
FREDERICTON, July 31.—The Burns' memorial committee met last evening. The chairman reported that the Fredericton society had made up $250. That the society at St. John had turned in contributions of $500, that $100 had been derived from the concert held in this city and voluntary subscriptions amounted to $200. There was every reason to hope for a substantial contribution from the society at Restigouche. It was estimated that about $1,500 more would be required to pay for the work. The chairman and secretary were instructed to issue to the Scotch people in the province a circular setting forth the project. It was thought that by this means there would be no difficulty in raising the amount required. The chairman also reported that he had received a letter from W. S. Stevenson, the famous Edinburgh sculptor, apprising him that the statue had been cast and was being shipped. The ceremony of unveiling the statue was postponed until September 13th on account of the St. John exhibition. It was decided, a vote having been taken, to place the monument on Fenwick avenue in the vicinity of the present band stand. Lord Aylmer this morning inspected the Royal Canadian Regiment. This evening he will be entertained at the officers' mess. The guests include Lord Aylmer, Col. Chisholm, Col. White, Majors Flett and Eaton, Col. Leggie, Majors Hawthorne and McLeod, Mayor McNally, Collector Street, C. J. Rodin, J. J. Bodkin, Capt. H. H. Ashburnham, R. F. Randolph, Major Bridges. At a meeting of the congregation of the Church of England last night it was decided to hold the annual Sunday school picnic on August 21st.

OPERATION AFTER TRYING EXPERIENCE

Little Girl Carried 12 Miles on Stretcher in Terrible Wind and Rain Storm.

MONTREAL, Que., July 31.—Carried twelve miles on a stretcher in one of the worst rain storms of the year, then a hundred miles by train to Montreal and an operation for appendicitis in the thirteen year-old daughter of H. C. Teller came through last week. She was summering at Lac Beauport, near St. Marguerite station on the C. P. R., when she became ill. She had to be carried on a stretcher to the hospital at Montreal. The operation at the Royal Victoria was a success.

ANOTHER COMPANY
REFUSES PAYMENT

Will Not Recognize Claims of San Francisco Sufferers—Policy Never Intended for That

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The Trans-Atlantic Insurance Company of Hamburg, Germany, have refused to pay $1,000,000 claims submitted by the city of San Francisco. The following statement was given out last night by the local office of the company: "The Trans-Atlantic Fire Insurance Company denies liability upon the ground that the losses arose from an overwhelming catastrophe, due to a visitation of Providence, for indemnity against the consequences of which policy never was intended to provide and does not provide."

TELEPHONE WAR ON NORTH SHORE

Chatham Cut Off From Outside World by Action of N. B. Telephone Co.

(Special to the Star.)
CHATHAM, N. B., July 31.—The N. B. Telephone Co. have refused to transmit any messages over their wires coming from the Central Co.'s office. Chatham is today cut off from all outside communication. Col. McKenna said this morning that the Central Co. would have a line to Newcastle in operation this afternoon. Campbell in 48 hours and in two or three weeks the Central Co.'s trunk lines would touch St. John, Bathurst, Moncton and important points. Four hundred men are now out for the Central Co. erecting wires and poles.

BELLEVIEW MAN
FOUND DEAD IN BED

BELLEVIEW, Ont., July 31.—E. W. Meyers, aged 63 years, was found dead in bed this morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. John N. Laier. The deceased was a great friend of Captain Meyers, who founded the city. He was city jailer for twenty-five years.

SEA SERPENT IS ON TIME THIS YEAR.

Seen at Deal Beach on New Jersey Coast.

Its Advent Vouched for by a Reputable Physician—His Wife and Others Also Saw Monster.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The first of the 1906 crop of sea serpents has appeared on the New Jersey coast, between Asbury Park and Deal Beach. Its advent is vouched for by the following veracious "Newarkers." Dr. Augustus J. Mitchell, 74 South street, a member of the staff of St. James' hospital; Mrs. Mitchell, John Gregory, a church choir singer, 19 Tondoy street and Marcus A. Douglas, 222 Broad street. All these aver that while they were strolling along the board walk, near Deal Beach last evening, a sea serpent ventured so close to shore that it was caught by a comb and landed high and dry on the sands. There it wriggled and dandled long enough to permit the Newarkers to inspect it at near range. Then it wriggled back into the ocean and headed out to sea. "There were several of us in the party," said Dr. Mitchell today. "In addition to myself and my Newark friends there were the Misses Goodwin, who reside, I think, in 15th street, the Bronx, and William and Wilbur Carrol, who live in New Orleans. "I noticed, out close to the surf line, a moving object, its motion was distinctly serpentine. As it came nearer I saw that it was black, with a head startlingly like those of Chinese dragons I have seen pictured, its body was about twenty feet long and more than a foot thick. "I was afraid I was seeing things," but when Mrs. Mitchell and others cried out 'the sea serpent,' I was reassured. "The black body was horny, each protuberance being about twelve inches in length. It came right in to shore until it was lifted over on the last breaker and left stranded. It remained there only a moment and then slipped back into the water and quickly disappeared."

POPE RECEIVES
SEVERAL AMERICANS.

Introduced by Mgr. Kennedy, Rector of the American College—Pope in Splendid Health.

ROME, July 31.—The Pope today received the American pilgrims conducted by the Right Rev. Henry Gabriel, Bishop of Orléans, N. Y., and the Rev. John J. McCann, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who were presented by Mgr. Kennedy, Rector of the American College. The Pope is enjoying excellent health.

Mr. Grane gave the Pope a gold pen and Bishop Gabrieli presented him with a $1,350 of Peters Pence. The Bishop also read an address in which he said Catholicism was making rapid strides in the United States, due to the complete freedom which the church enjoyed and the good will of the American civil authorities. He quoted President Roosevelt as saying to him on learning that the Bishop was to conduct a pilgrimage to Rome: "All the Pope that I see in him, my profound regards." "I have tried to treat Protestants and Catholics alike, as my latest dealings with Petropolis will stand for many a century. I expect that the Pope will be very highest esteem of President Roosevelt. The Pontiff also presented the leaders of the pilgrimage with medals and commented to be photographed in the group of pilgrims."

SERGT. CAMPBELL ENGAGES COUNSEL; EVIDENCE ALL IN

Magistrate Ritchie and Dr. MacRae in Lively Tiff—Lawyers Will Deliver Their Addresses To-morrow—Several Witnesses on Stand This Morning.

The case of assault preferred against Sergt. Campbell by Peter LeClair was resumed this morning and Dr. A. W. MacRae appeared for the defense. Cornelius Dineen, a longshoreman, testified that on Friday last he was foreman on discharging the steamer Veritas in the employ of Alex. McDermott, the stevedore. Mr. MacRae asked witness if Campbell had asked him anything about any of the men employed there. Mr. Baxter objected. Witness told the court that LeClair was 20 feet away at the time, and that question was ruled out. Continuing, witness said LeClair did not ask for work and there was no interference. He did not know what business LeClair had on the wharf. Witness did not see the trouble. It was about fifteen minutes before the ship started working that he saw LeClair. To Mr. Baxter witness said Campbell was on the wharf and when he asked the men to go to work he heard that it was after the trouble between Campbell and the men. Mr. MacRae objected to evidence that was not given in Campbell's presence and said that the magistrate had been sharp on some things. Magistrate Ritchie—"What do you mean? Do you think, as a barrister, that you have a right to say such a thing?" Mr. MacRae—"Well, in the absence of counsel I think I was right in saying what I did, but did not use the word 'sharp' in an offensive manner." Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr. MacRae, that when he asked Horton and Mullin to go to work all they said was that they didn't care to go to work and did not refer to Campbell. The men pointed to LeClair in an offensive manner. Magistrate—"Well, you can sit down." Continuing, the witness said in answer to Mr.