the earth or beneath have there are a starter interest in the valey—on the ocean or in the quiet of nature's most hidden spot—where is there not danger 7—where has not Death left some token of his presence ?? " " True," I replied, " but the vicestandes of ine are various : the sailor seeks his living on the waters, and he knows each moment that they may english him—the huncr seeks death in the wild woods and the solder in the battle-field—and the wild woods and the solder in the battle-field—and the miner knows not but the spot where he now stands, to-morrow may be his tomb." " It is so, indeel, "replied the old man : " we find death in the means we seek to perpetuate his ; " It is a strange riddle, who shall solve it ?" I aked, somewhat struck with the old man's instance." It is so.
