WHY IS MR. MORRISSY SILENT? rissy had not been doing some talking, and in the connection it should Apparently, the "Honorable" John be remembered that the oath to which Morrissy is in no hurry to inform a Mr. Morrissy subscribed when he bewaiting public why, contrary to the came an Executive Councillor plainly advice of his Chief Engineer, he pledged him to "keep secret such matawarded the contract for the Moncton ters as shall be debated in said Coun-Bridge to the highest instead of the cil and committed to your secrecy."

Engineer has been shown, by reference to the letter from that official on the sylvantian from the ex-minister is certainly due. As matters stand at present Mr. Morrissy flagures as the head of a department who had so little regard for the provincial well, and which are only now mencing to come to light. Means that he was willing deliberately to inflict upon the province a totally summecessary loss of $7,207. Fortunations from the province with the matter and calling for new renders, saved New Brunswick not $7,207 but $22,500.

One of Mr. Morrissy's complaints was that his colleagues did not work may have the proportion of in this province nor case where they did not and where, through that lack of harmony, the Province saved a substantial sum.

The Standard Joins with his many friends in extending to Hone, P. G. Are the province and them of them of the province and totally summer to a standard the dealings which Mr. Morrissy's complaints was that his colleagues did not work in harmony with him; here is one case where they did not and where through that lack of harmony, the Province saved a substantial sum.

somewhat childishly, ask why was he no knowledge as to its officers. Is not at once dismissed when his action it possible that after the Province had chiefs in the nation's capital, watch regarding the Moncton Bridge tender paid nearly $25,000 to Concrete Conwas brought to light? It would be structions, Ltd. Mr. Morrissy or his ch more to the point were they to secretary had no knowledge concern ask why, if Mr. Morrissy had any self ing the company's officers? On the respect, did he not at once resign of matters the ex-Mindster of Public his own accord when his colleagues Works could furnish much interesting sat in appeal upon his judgment and information and his failure to do so is reversed it? Why did he submit to decidedly a suspicious circumstance. the snub so administered? If he was then unable to appreciate that the pression of lack of confidence in him, the caption the Daily Ananias used that was his affair, not theirs. It was the caption of the development of the development of the dismiss Mr. Morrissy, because the Meredith-Duff Commission of Enquiry. dismiss Mr. Morrissy, because the Meredith-Dult Commission of English.

Government by taking matters into Perusal of the text of the article, however, failed to show warrant for the sensational headlines, so it is evident.

Mr. Morrissy's newspaper supporters assert that the Government is now dening expedition in Albert county to charging against him and his department certain irregularities the exist-ence of which they had previously desied. The Government accepted Mr. which the headline was evidently bas Morrissy's assurances that his department held no such irregularities as the opposition scandal-mongers charged. In the session of 1915, before the dwas found in the statement of changes charged. In the session of 1916, before the Chandler enquiry revelations were available, and in the session just closed, he again and arain defeed all persons to find anything wrong in the administration of his department. Therefore the Government carnot be blamed for accepting his assurances until they were shown to be untrue. Mr Morriasy and his apolesits need better ground than this on which to base their position.

Evidence that the "ex-Minister of Public Works has been in close touch with the opposition organizer is discovered readily enough now that attacts tention is being turned in that direction. For instance, there is Mr. Carter says referring to liquor in the securing companies to under the letter to "My Dear Dugal," read by the latter in the House, in which Mr. Carter says referring to liquor incenses" Mr. Sullivan himself told a member of the Government WHO in FORMED ME." Mr. Morrissy had previously stated that he was the member of the Government who in the Legislature in reference to a specific many and the Legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many of the Carter caused an inquiry to be made in the Legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the companies to the legislature in reference to a specific many and the companies to the legislature in reference to a specific many and the companies to the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many and the legislature in reference to a specific many a

HON. P. G. MAHONEY.

Mr. John Morrissy's assertion that is colleagues in the Clarke Government were attacking him because he was an "Krishman" and a "Catholic," was not believed when he made it, but tter proof of its falsity is aforded by the announcement from redericton that his place in the Exutive Council will be filled by the ppointment of Mr. P. G. Mahoney ne of the members for Westmorlar nan" and a "Catholic."

It is hardly necessary, at this time Hazen formed his first ministry fair representation has been given to every ince and that policy will be continued

Mr. Mahoney's appointment will be entire province. A keen business man
