

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 11, 1903.

CANADA'S PLACE IN THE PLAN OF CHAMBERLAIN.

C. H. McIntyre, of Boston, Who is Well-known Here, Discusses Imperial Preferential Trade; American Public Opinion Concerning It, and the Matter of Imperial Defence.

Charles H. McIntyre, well known here and in Canadian circles in Boston, has written for The Telegraph the following excellent and interesting article on American Public Opinion and British Preferential Trade.

Whatever may be the outcome of Mr. Chamberlain's recent trade proposals, they have certainly aroused great interest in the United States. In two directions their effects have already been very marked.

The conspiracy of silence about Canadian reciprocity has at last been broken, and all classes of journals are now clamoring for wider trade relations with the dominion.

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

of her American relations. This country, it asserts, has not only Americanized the manufacturing and industrial processes of the United States, but to use the words of that wily philosopher, William Pitt, she has "Americanized the world."

But to my mind, one of the strongest arguments in favor of Imperial reciprocity is the hostility of foreign exporters. It is an accordance with human nature, that they should not have a good word for it, because they know very well that its success will prevent the dumping of their surplus products on British markets at cut-throat prices.

Indeed, retaliation against British possessions would then be a much more dangerous proceeding than under the status quo. Does any one deny the right or duty of Massachusetts, under the constitution to permit the products of Texas or New York to come into her borders untraded? No, of course not.

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

As an illustration of conservative American opinion on this question, I select at random an article in Harper's Weekly for June 27, entitled "Will Canadian Liberals Turn to the United States?"

has taught the writer never to be unprepared for the furious outbreak of an unbridled public opinion in a democracy. To any dispassionate observer, it is clear that sooner or later Canada will be obliged to consider the matter of her defence.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

As a Canadian by birth, I hail with joy this policy of preferential trade within the empire. It has its difficulties, no doubt, but they are very much exaggerated.

OBITUARY.

Ralph Vincent. A telegram was received Tuesday by Mrs. W. H. Colwell, Duluth, Minn., being the sad news that her grandson, Ralph Vincent, aged fourteen, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Vincent, has lost his life by accident at Winnipeg, where Mr. Vincent is pastor of the Baptist church.

Miss Dolly Connolly. News has been received of the death of Miss Dolly Connolly, daughter of Stephen Connolly, Quebec, and sister of Rev. Stephen Connolly, C. S. R., a former priest in St. Peter's parish, North End, of Fredericton.

Mrs. Lena Watson. Mrs. Lena Watson, mother of Richard Watson, of Pokok, died at Boston Sunday. She had been visiting her daughter in Fredericton, and was highly respected in her native city.

Mrs. Layton. The death occurred at Middleton, Annapolis county (N. S.), on Monday of Mrs. Layton, wife of T. B. Layton, formerly of Truro. The deceased was taken ill about two months ago from internal disease and died suddenly.

Miss Susie Kennedy. Many friends learned with regret Tuesday that Miss Susie Kennedy, daughter of E. J. Kennedy, of Union street, died yesterday morning at Point Landing, near Westfield. She was about 25 years of age and was a native of the west.

WAS BORN IN CANADA. In response to a letter which reaches me from Chicago, writes the Marquis de Fontenay, I may say that Capt. Dudley De Chair, R. N., the new naval attaché of the British embassy at Washington, is a young Canadian-born midshipman whose adventures at the time of the bombardment of Alexandria read almost like those of Henry's novels, and excited a good deal of interest at the time on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mrs. Andrew C. Miller, Linton's, Sunbury County. Mrs. Andrew C. Miller, aged 23 years, died at her home, at Linton's, Sunbury County, on Monday last, after a lingering illness with consumption. Deceased was the daughter of Wm. De Long, of Kansas. Her mother dying when she was an infant, she was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler, of Salmon Creek. She leaves a husband and one son, two years old, besides a large number of relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. N. Ferguson. At the home of L. G. Crosby, German street, Mrs. James N. Ferguson, of Amherst (N. S.), daughter of the late William Bent, of Amherst, passed peacefully away yesterday after an illness of several months. She was 65 years of age. Her husband was eighty-one years of age. She leaves two daughters—Mrs. F. R. Butler, formerly of the village of Amherst (N. S.), and Mrs. L. G. Crosby. Interment will take place in the Butcher lot in Fernhill Thursday.

Walter Spence. The news reached the city Wednesday from Roxbury (Mass.), of the death of Walter Spence on Tuesday. The deceased young man is the second son of Thomas Spence, formerly of the city of New York. The remains will be brought here for burial, and the funeral will be held on the arrival of the Boston train on Friday, the 10th inst.

Capt. A. N. Smith. A cable to Messrs. Wm. Thomson & Co. Wednesday announced the death at Antwerp of Captain Alexander Smith, of the British line S. S. Nema. Cause of the liver was the immediate cause of his death. A few days ago it was announced that Capt. Smith was seriously ill. Capt. Norman Thomson entered the employ of Messrs. Wm. Thomson & Co. in October, 1889, as master of the sailing ship Wildwood, prior to that he commanded the Nova Scotia barque J. C. Williams. In 1897 he was transferred to the Wildwood on the steamship Mantuan, the first of the Hotel line. He next took command of the S. S. Arbelia (new), which was afterwards wrecked off Newfoundland. He next took charge of the S. S. Nema, a new vessel, and in January, 1902, he assumed command of the S. S. Nema, of which vessel he is in charge when death came. In his earlier career he was a most successful commander. Capt. Smith was a native of Wood's Harbor (N. S.), but for some time he has made his home at Yarmouth (N. S.), where his wife and family reside. He was about 33 years of age. Flags are flying at half-mast on the Pharsalia out of respect for Capt. Smith. Capt. Smith was an Englishman who resided in this city for a number of years, and a naval reserve at present in Antwerp, will take charge of the Nema.

James Cox. James Cox, the veteran Candidate (Mass.), newspaper editor, died on Monday. He was born in St. John in 1825. His wife, Mary Callahan, was also a native of this city. They celebrated their golden wedding in 1897, he being then 72 years of age. They have seven children, several of them in the newspaper business. Mr. Cox went to Boston in 1883.

Moosepath Park Improved. The St. John Driving Company have had a force of men at work at Moosepath Park and the track itself has been practically made over. Over $8000 has been expended toward it, and it is now in better condition than ever before. Two thousand two hundred loads of earth, taken from the centre, have been put on the far end of the track, and the rest of the half mile has received proper attention. All the old buildings, with the exception of the grandstand, have been torn down and five new stalls for horses have been built at a cost of $300. A number of horses are now occupying the stalls, and others will be taken out in the near future. The grandstand may be remodelled at some future date, but for the present is only partly painted. The track is now used every day by quite a number of horsemen.

SOME N. B. TEACHERS AT BOSTON CONVENTION.

Fredericton Manual Training Exhibit Attracts Much Attention.

Among the 25,000 teachers attending the National Education Association in Boston are about 100 Canadians from various parts of Canada. Those from New Brunswick who are registered at the Canadian headquarters in Copley Square Hotel are Miss Annie E. Deeny, Harvey; Miss Iva Baxter, Andover; V. Lynn and E. E. MacCreedy, of Fredericton.

One of the important features of the convention is the manual training department. The Eastern Manual Training Association is in session in Boston also at this time, and the programme is a rich one. A large exhibit of work of manual training schools from all parts of the United States represented by photographs is shown in the Prince school. The only exhibit from Canada is that sent by Mr. MacCreedy from Fredericton, and is attracting a good deal of attention and favorable comment. It is to be regretted that more of our teachers have not been able to attend. Here the largest teachers' convention ever held.

Boston, July 8.—The Canadian teachers met yesterday morning at 8:30 at their headquarters, the Copley Square Hotel, and effected an organization. About 80 attended the meeting and elected the following officers: Dr. McCay, Halifax, director; Mr. Tweddie, New Brunswick, assistant director; and Miss Bessie M. Scott, Ottawa, secretary. Hitherto the Canadian delegation has been debarré from receiving tickets which are given out for distribution to the directors of the various organizations, but they now stand on the same footing as the other members of the National Education Association and can share in the week's events.

Personal Intelligence. Dr. Oscar Watson, of New York, and his nephew, W. A. Macdonald, arrived at the Wayside Inn, Roxbury, on July 7. Dr. Watson comes to spend a brief vacation with his parents. Miss Prescott, Miss Berryman and their children, the Guilford Reed, of Boston, are at the Wayside Inn, Roxbury, for July. Miss Flora Bullock, of St. John, who has been spending a short vacation in Nova Scotia, has returned and is now summering at Brown's Place.

William White, editor and proprietor of the Maritime News, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred E. Simpson, of Waterloo street. Mr. White is an old St. John boy, having served his time in the Courthouse office of Mr. G. O. Phillips. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mary A. Messes May and Miss Kelley, of Brown's Place.

Mrs. J. H. Gray, of Fairville, son and daughter left on Wednesday for Point de Bute to visit Maria Trueman, Mrs. Gray's father. Miss Edith McCafferty, a nurse in St. John's Hospital, formerly of Point de Bute, returned home on Thursday's Boston express. Oram Albee, formerly superintendent of the North End Woodworking Company, and his wife, Mrs. Oram Albee, who has been prospecting for several months, in three or four months he will return to take up his residence there.

Mrs. F. W. Gardner, of New Brunswick, is visiting for a month at the home of her father, C. W. Green, Elm street. A. C. Jardine, who had been in St. John for some time, is now in Halifax for a few days. He is expected home this week.

Miss Mary A. Fletcher, left Wednesday for home in the City of Bellevue (N. S.). She is expected home this week. Mrs. A. M. P. Fitch, of Beaud street, who went on a three weeks' vacation. Mrs. Rokus of Drury's Cove, is seriously ill. Her husband, Mr. Rokus, for some time past, and she has been so much weaker during the past few days that her friends are much concerned.

Serge Hynes, of the police force, has returned to duty after a pleasant vacation at Lynn (Mass.). Mrs. T. Anos Wilson and children, of Fredericton, are visiting friends in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. O'Mara, of Halifax, are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Chipman, of Boston, are visiting in St. John. N. B. Colwell left last night in the Montreal train for the Hotel line. Miss Helen Allan has gone to Fredericton to spend her vacation. Mrs. Dr. Barbour and children, of Fredericton, are spending a few weeks at Roxbury and St. John.

Mrs. James Gillespie, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Edgewood at Spring Street. Miss Helen Allan has gone to Fredericton to spend her vacation. Hon. L. P. Farris and wife leave on the 15th inst. for a trip to the Pacific coast. Mrs. J. H. Gray, of Fairville, is visiting for a month at the home of her father, C. W. Green, Elm street.

Presented With Gold Watch. S. J. Rathman, who has been looking after the interests of the owners of the Lake Superior since the work of breaking her up was commenced, has been presented by the firm with a magnificent gold watch as a token of their appreciation of his valuable services in their behalf. The presentation was made by Louis Miller, one of the owners of the steamer, who is at present in the city.

TO PAINT RIGHT

Competition helps to sell the Famous "Headlight" Watch. The safest match is The E. B. Eddy Co's CAPITAL SAFETY. Only strike on the box. Ask your grocer for them.

THE DIVORCE COURT.

One Case from Westmorland and One from Albert County. Fredericton, July 7.—The June term of the divorce court opened in the supreme court room this morning, Judge Gregory presiding. Two cases were entered for trial, as follows:— George A. Brewster vs. Mary J. Brewster.

Harvey Kelly vs. Elizabeth Kelly. The Brewster case is undefended. The plaintiff is a ship carpenter, and resides at Harvey Bank, Albert county. He and defendant were married in May, 1888, and had seven children. The libel charges the defendant with infidelity as far back as 1888. The two lived together, however, after this until December, 1901, when defendant left her husband's bed and board, and has not since returned. The libel charges further infidelity since that time, and names Benj. B. Smith, iron moulder, of Sackville, a brother-in-law of defendant, as co-respondent. It alleges in fact that Smith and defendant have been living together in Sackville as man and wife in a house rented by Smith for some time past.

Witnesses were heard and judgment reserved till next term. M. G. Ted, proctor for plaintiff. The Kelly case was also undefended. The plaintiff is a machinist, and lives at Moncton. He and defendant were married in December, 1887, and lived together until September, 1896, when defendant is charged with having deserted plaintiff, leaving their four children in his care. Absolute divorce is also asked in this case on the grounds of infidelity on the wife's part. One Stephen Dougherty, a laborer and widow, is named as co-respondent, and the libel alleges that he and defendant are and have been living together at Little River, Albert county, as man and wife. Her four children in his care. Absolute divorce is also asked in this case on the grounds of infidelity on the wife's part. One Stephen Dougherty, a laborer and widow, is named as co-respondent, and the libel alleges that he and defendant are and have been living together at Little River, Albert county, as man and wife. Her four children in his care. Absolute divorce is also asked in this case on the grounds of infidelity on the wife's part.

There will be sold at Public Auction, the sixth day of October, 1903, at twelve o'clock, noon, in the Court House, in the City of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, all the right, title and interest of J. Deane in and to all that lot, parcel of land situated on the corner of King street in the City of Saint John in the County of Saint John City and County of Saint John, containing 425 fronting on King street (east) and running southward seven feet with one hundred feet and six inches fronting on Carmanth street, and buildings thereon, the same being subject to a lease bearing date the twenty-ninth of May, A. D. 1878, and made between A. Howe of the one part and Thomas Will and William J. Deane of the other part, the period of five years from the first of January then next, reserving the annuity of eighty dollars per year and containing covenant for the renewal thereof. The said lease has been forfeited and the said buildings are to be sold by public auction on an execution issued out of the St. John's Court, in the Province of New Brunswick, against the said Elizabeth Deane, at the suit of Benjamin H. Deane, executor of the last will and testament of Sarah Howe, deceased.

On the track to the Island buoy the Kivi struck a calm streak while the other boats held the wind, and dropped out of the race. The following is the official time: Start. Time. Valid. 1:24.49 1:04.07

WHAT A MOTHER SAYS. "It gives me great pleasure to say a good word for Baby's Own Tablets. At the age of two months my baby was dreadfully constipated. He could not digest his food and he became incessantly ill. Since giving him the Tablets he has been well and growing splendidly." S. C. O'Connell, Montreal.

it cools the blood and keeps one comfortable in the most oppressive weather. Sovereign Lime Juice is the best lime juice obtainable. In 10-15-25-50 cent bottles. At all Grocers. SIMSON BROS. CO. LTD., HALIFAX, N. S.

By the end of March, 1904, 10 per cent of war will have been added to the value of the stock.