

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, July 9. It is surprising how much enthusiasm a tennis or golf tournament injects into an otherwise quiet season. Warm weather does not affect the ardor of the competitors, indeed it would seem as if the lighter temperature the more eagerly they become. Under a broiling sun at Fredericton last week the Roches team tied in a match with the local players. Upon their return they expressed themselves as being highly pleased with their play in the celestial city. The Wednesday test at the St. John courts have been well attended. That on Thursday was in charge of Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Miss MacAviney and Miss Marjorie Lee.

At the golf links, the instructor, Mr. Henderson, has been giving some splendid exhibitions of play. This was especially noticeable on Wednesday afternoon, when he played finer golf than had ever before been seen on the local links. The Thursday tests have been discontinued for the month of July and August.

On Monday at St. Patrick's cathedral in New York the marriage will take place of Miss Eileen Maguire, daughter of the Hon. Timothy Maguire, and Lieut. H. Hutchins, son of Rear Admiral Charles Thomas Hutchins (retired), of the United States Navy. In the tour of the U. S. fleet around the world, Lieut. Hutchins acted as aide de camp to Rear Admiral Hutchins and is one of the most traveled officers in the navy. It was while in Melbourne, Australia, that Miss Maguire became acquainted with Lieut. Hutchins. Miss Margaret Anglin, the distinguished actress and sister of Miss Eileen, was married last week to the prospective bride and groom.

Major and Mrs. Norman Leslie, of Kingston (Ont.), spent the week with Mrs. James Dwyer, of Chatham. Miss Ena MacLaren returned home on Saturday after a pleasant visit to friends in Halifax.

A society wedding of interest took place at St. Stephen's Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, when George Gordon Dunlop solemnized the marriage of Miss Violet Douglas, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Donald MacRae, D. D., and Mr. William Alfred Patterson, A. M., son of Mr. Thomas Patterson, a well known professor of science at the Western Canada College at Calgary, Alberta. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Kenneth MacRae, was charmingly gowned in heliotrope chiffon and carried a bouquet of white flowers and green foliage. Her hat of white chip was encircled with a heliotrope chiffon and had plumes of the same shade. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor, little Miss Mary Campbell, niece of the bride, was lovely in a white, embroidered muslin frock and she carried pink carnations. Mrs. Campbell, sister of the bride, was present from Moncton and wore black charmeuse, black toque with white oysters. The church was very prettily decorated with white flowers and green foliage. The first three rows of seats, which were reserved for the family, were separated by wreaths of white flowers and smilax. Appropriate music was furnished by the St. Stephen's choir. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the little maid of honor he presented a pretty brooch set with pearls. After a luncheon at the residence of Mrs. George A. Riecker, the happy couple left on the Pacific express for an extended tour through the upper provinces before proceeding to Calgary in September.

Mrs. George Kerr McLeod left on Wednesday for Kingston (Ont.), to visit her sister, Mrs. Carruthers. Mrs. McLeod was accompanied by her two children. Miss McMillan expects to leave next Wednesday to spend a month with friends in Newport, Rhode Island. Miss Mary Warren leaves next week to spend several weeks with friends at Crown's Neck, Maine. Miss Mary L. Harrison expects to leave next week to visit Mrs. Rhodes at Litchfield.

Among the bright events of the week were the receptions on Tuesday and Wednesday, when Mrs. J. B. Harrison received her friends for the first time since her marriage in June. Mrs. Harrison was gowned in her beautiful wedding gown, which was trimmed with white oysters, the silk had yoke and sleeves of Princess lace. A tunic of tulle had panels back and front of wide Princess lace. On the side, orange blossoms fastened the tunic into place; ornaments, pearls. Miss Madge Robertson, gowned in her beautiful dress of blue silk, assisted Mrs. Harrison in the drawing room. Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, gowned in black Rajah, trimmed with embroidered chiffon and wearing black liletto jacket with white oysters, and Mrs. Robert Elliot, in white silk, trimmed with lace, black hat with white trimming, presided in the dining room on Tuesday. The tea table was handsomely set and centered with a beautiful bouquet of pink and white peonies in a cut glass bowl. The young ladies who assisted were Miss Muriel Fairweather, who wore blue mousline de soie, white hat, pink rose trimming; Miss Christine Robinson, white lingerie gown, green chip hat; Miss Alice Davidson, white mousline de soie, black liletto jacket with white oysters; Miss Avice Armstrong, white lingerie gown, trimmed with lace, white hat with flower trimmings. On Wednesday Mrs. Harrison and Miss Robertson were gowned as on the day previous. The drawing room was presided over by Mrs. John M. Robinson, gowned in a white lingerie gown over yellow. Chip hat with yellow ostrich feathers and Mrs. H. Beverly Robinson, in white mousline de soie, white hat with long black ostrich plumes. The young lady assistants were Miss Mary Trepanier in blue marquisette, blue hat trimmed with same shade of feathers; Miss Mary L. Harrison, white lingerie gown, white hat with white flowers; Miss Frances Stetson, white embroidered lawn, black hat with roses; Miss McMillan, white organdy muslin trimmed with white lace, heliotrope chip hat.

A wedding of interest to friends in St. John took place at Christ Church, Vancouver (B. C.), on June 29, when Mr. Roy F. Likely, son of Mr. Joseph Likely, of this city, and Miss Hazel Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw, of Kitalano, were married by the Rev. L. C. Owen. The bride wore a smart tailored costume of pearl grey broadcloth, grey tulle hat with blue ostrich feathers. Mr. and Mrs. Likely left on a wedding tour after which they will reside at Kitalano. Mrs. William Campbell, who spent the winter in St. John with the late Mrs. DeWolfe Spurr, has gone to visit her brothers, in Richibucto. Mrs. Homer Forbes, who was visiting Mrs. E. C. McLeod at Chatham, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes expect to leave next week for Forbes (N. S.) to spend July and August. Mrs. Joshua King, who is the Misses Ruth and Jessie Knight are to leave Moncton, N. B., to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley, at New York.

Mrs. W. G. Pugsley arrived in the city on Wednesday. Hon. Mr. Pugsley is now on his way to the west. Mr. Edwin L. Foster, formerly of St. John, of Philadelphia, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. S. Bridges, Westworth street.

Mrs. Andrew Blair is enjoying a visit from his sister, Miss Cameron. Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mrs. Skinner were among the guests of Mrs. Skinner on Wednesday afternoon, July 7.
