A. H. S. COMMENCEMENT

A Great Assemblage Honors the Work of the School—The Function a Brilliant Success

ARZA PARISH, Chairman 1873-1889

I. C. ALGUIRE, Chairman 1889-1901

The annual commencement of the Athens High School was held on Friday evening and the great throng of people that attended from far and near was a great tribute to the work of the school and to all identified with that institution. The demand for tickets was such that shortly after the plan opened it was found desirable to withdraw a

S. A. Taplin, W. G. Parish and J. E.
Burchell. While the business management of this highly successful event was performed by Principal Massey, he was ably assisted in the preparation of the programme by the lady teachers on the staff, to whom credit is due for the excellent drills and choruses given by the students. The singing was number of seats in order that those coming by train might be accommodated. The attendance from outside points, however, exceeded all expectations and the result was many obtaining standing room only, and many arriving late were unable to gain admittance. The attendance must have numbered close to a thousand.

The ushers did well, seating all ticket holders expeditiously, but in the rear seats it was impossible to prevent some little confusion. The chairman of the H.S. board, Mr A. W. Johnston, presided in his usual efficient manner and introduced the programme with a brief address. On the platform were Messrs. John A. Derbyshire, G. A. Wright, R. G. Murphy of Brockville, Ald. W. J. Bengough of Toronto, A. E. Donovan, M.P.P., staff. Mr Melvin Milroy received a great ovation on taking the platform to receive the honors won in well contested fields as a harrier. First, G. A.

Wright, Secretary of the Brockville Fair, presented him with the medal won at the last exhibition, and then Mr J. A. Derbyshire, President of the Brockville Harriers' Club, presented the staff.
