

VII.

That each Member may, of right, require the question or motion in discussion, to be read for his information at any time of the debate, but not so as to interrupt a Member speaking.

VIII.

That no Member shall speak more than once on the same question, without leave of the House, except in explanation of a material part of his speech, which may have been misconceived; but then he is not to introduce new matter.

IX.

That no Member shall speak more than
