

upwards, and a Census Officer to act in and for each City and each such incorporated Town as aforesaid.

Census officers to appoint Enumerators.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Census Officer for each such locality as aforesaid, shall appoint one or more Enumerators to act in and for each Parish or Township Municipality therein (whether composed of one Parish or Township or of more than one), and in and for each Ward of any City or incorporated Town, therein and may divide any such Municipality or Ward into two or more Enumeration Districts, and appoint one or more Enumerators for each, whenever he shall deem it expedient: Provided always, that every Penitentiary, Gaol or House of Correction, Public Hospital or Lunatic Asylum, to be named for the purpose by the Board of Registration and Statistics, shall be a separate Enumeration District, in and for which the Warden, Gaoler, Keeper or other person having charge thereof shall be the Enumerator by virtue of his office.

Proviso.

Enumerators to be instructed by Census officers and to act under them, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Enumerators shall act under the immediate instructions and directions of the Census Officer over the County, City or Town within which they are respectively to act, and it shall be the duty of each Census Officer to instruct each Enumerator under him, and to see that he perfectly understands the duties he is to perform under this Act, and to furnish him with the proper forms; and also to cause public notice to be given of the taking of the said Census, and of the information which all persons are required to give to the said Enumerators, and the manner and time in and at which the same is to be given, and the penalties to be incurred for refusing or neglecting to give it.

Duty of Enumerators in taking the Census.

VIII. And be it enacted, That on the second Monday in January 1852, and on the second Monday in January in every year thereafter in which the Census is to be taken, and upon such number of days next after each such Monday as may be necessary, every Enumerator shall, under the instructions of the Census Officer under whom he is to act, visit every house in his Enumeration District, and shall diligently and faithfully take an account in writing of the name, sex, age and occupation, of every living person who abode therein on the night of the Sunday next preceding such Monday, and shall also ascertain who of such persons are transient passengers, having their permanent residence elsewhere, and whether such residence is in this Province, or out of it, (and the name, sex, age and occupation, of every person usually a resident therein but then casually absent, distinguishing such persons from others,) and shall also collect and take an account of all such further information as shall be required by his instructions:
