

I have cut out a few clippings about Sir Wilfrid that I thought you might like to read.

The Book I got from you for our friend was too late to help him, he did not start soon enough to take care of himself. He died last Friday and every one felt his death very much. Your friend Mr. Fred Nottingham of Newmarket was one of the Pall-bearers. I had my car in mourning, having purple and black streamers on each side of the windshield, and drove some of the mourners.

Wishing you all good success have relatives on Chapel St. ³⁹⁴³⁵ which, if I remember rightly, is quite near. I refer to Mr. David Simmie.

When we thought of the distance we decided it was too far.

After reading the description in the Toronto Papers we thought we would like to see what would be in the Ottawa papers.

Also pleased to know that you spoke of conveying, personally, our sympathy to Lady Laurier.

I am enclosing a postcard of a snapshot taken of a crowd when my sister and I were visiting last summer.
