

(Mr. MacGregor's
rejoinder to Dr.
Arnold's reply).

OR-8

"Mr. Scammell is a fluent and graceful speaker, intensely earnest in his patriotic fight for Canada and the British Empire.

5 "I am an English Liberal - nay more an English Radical - but I stand on a Liberal Conservative platform - because its cause is good and appealed especially to the British-born - in 10 1878 The Great National Policy of Protection did much to still the murmurs of annexation."

"Reciprocity an Engangling web".

"Rise Canadians - hold your own."

15 Mr. Scammell's address was a fitting successor to the unusually good ones delivered here in the past few weeks by Mr. Hawkes-White and Mr. Borden. "

Also the following report from the Brockville Evening Recorder, a Liberal paper, I understand of Friday 15th September, 1911 :

" Brockville Evening Recorder,
Friday September 15th, 1911.

20 MEETING IN VICTORIA HALL BROCKVILLE LAST NIGHT-
BRITISH BORN

Mr. Scammell was acclaimed by the Tories in the audience as he came forward to speak - Claimed to be an English Radical. He admitted 25 that he was working for the Tory Party."

The above reports on Mr. Scammell's announced preference for the Conservative policy of 1878, and his active campaigning in support of the 30 Conservative policy of 1911, should, of course, be
