In all the vicissitudes of life you have been greatly blessed in your family relationships, and those like myself who know them will be so happy that your family circle on your eighty-fifth birthday is complete and that Mrs. Meighen your devoted help-meet, and Ted, Max and Lillian and your grandchildren will be with you to share and to add to your happiness on this not-to-be-forgotten occasion.

Arthur Campbell tells me that he is going up to Toronto to be with you on your birthday. I wish I could do the same, but my thoughts will be with you. I shall be wishing you many happy returns of the day and recalling many kindnesses which I have received from you.

*Yours sincerely,
Donald M. Fleming*
