

Re. No. 3:

We have the plate for this card. Birks will do them at last year's price - $2.70 per 100.

Re. No. 4:

We have a supply of about 50 left, roughly the same number we sent out last year. Last Christmas I was unable to find the plate for this card and spoke to Mr. Measures about it. He thinks it may be at the Printing Bureau where this card was originally done. In view of our not needing more of this card last year, I did not ask the Bureau about it. As we use very few of this number and the amount on hand is as large as that used last year, I thought before speaking to the Bureau about it now, I should mention the matter to you.
