Ottawa, May 17, 1910.

Sir,-

I beg to refer to communication addressed you on the 3rd of May, in regard to the question of disposition of gypsum lands in the Pennynose Indian Reserve, in the District of Kamloops, B. C., and as the Department is being pressed to deal with this matter, I have to ask you to be good enough to furnish the information asked for as early as possible.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

The Secretary,

Department of the Interior,
Ottawa.
