Air Raid Precautions brought into active operation by Dept. of National Health, in co-operation with provinces; Work on Plans for Co-operation with Great Britain speeded up.

13. Co-operation:

Plans cannot be final: in war, circumstances change with lightning-like rapidity, and plans must change too;

One form of co-operation for which Canada especially suited - relief of Great Britain in Newfoundland and Labrador;

Will help British and at ~~same~~ time safeguard the front door of Canada;

More general co-operation must be planned and responsible;

constant consultation with Great Britain, and constant revision of plans in Canada;

Highly technical character of modern warfare;

economic factor and ~~staying~~-power vital;

Colossal demands for equipment and supplies;
