

THE TRUSTEE.

Sec. 18. It shall be the duty of the Trustee to invest such moneys as may be entrusted to his care by the Lodge, the form of investment to be, unless otherwise directed by the Lodge, such securities as are authorized by law, and to pay over immediately to the Secretary of the Lodge all interest received thereon. At the annual installation officers he shall present a statement of his account, properly certified by the Auditors, showing the investments, amount of interest earned, nature of securities held, and so forth.

AUDITORS.

Sec. 19. It shall be the duty of the Auditors to audit the accounts of the Lodge, including the Trustee account and the Lodge Board of Relief account, and such Auditors shall report in writing at the annual installation of officers, or whenever required by the Lodge.

BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES.

Sec. 20. The Board of General Purposes shall consist of the officers and Past Masters of the Lodge. It shall meet on the Thursday preceding the regular meeting in each month, and whenever summoned by the Senior Warden, who shall preside, three to form a quorum. They shall have charge of the finances, examine all accounts, and recommend the same for payment. They shall have authority to inspect all books and papers relative to the accounts of the Lodge, and give orders for any alteration required therein. They shall have