

way speak unadvisedly with their lips. We have a most interesting group of Canadian hymn writers, who have done not a little to enrich the hymnology of the Church, and whose songs are sung far beyond the bounds of this Canada of ours. The object of this little brochure is to make this fact more widely known, and to awaken a deeper interest in this most helpful department of Canadian literature.

THE MANSE,

St. Andrews, N. B.

November, 1908.