

14. Any person found committing an offence against this Act may be arrested on view by any game officer, game warden or peace officer.

15. Every justice of the peace may upon his own view convict for any offence against this Act or a regulation.

16. The killing, taking, trapping or capturing of each mammal or bird, contrary to the provisions of this Act or a regulation, shall constitute a separate offence.

17. Every game officer and every game warden shall before acting take and subscribe to the following oath:—

A. B. , game officer (or game warden), appointed under the provisions of The Northwest Game Act and the regulations do swear that to the best of my judgment I will faithfully, honestly and impartially execute and perform the office and duty of such game officer (or game warden) according to the true intent and meaning of The Northwest Game Act and the regulations. So help me God.

18. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Act for which no other penalty is provided, or of any regulation, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to,—

- (a) a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or less than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment, for any offence against subsections four and five of section four;
- (b) a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or less than fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months, or to both fine and imprisonment, for any offence under subsection nine of section four, or under section eleven;
- (c) a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or less than five dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months, or to both fine and imprisonment, for any other offence against this Act or a regulation.

19. When because of the distance, or for want of conveyance or communication, or for any other cause, it is not convenient to confine any convicted person in the nearest gaol, or other place of confinement, the convicting authority shall have power to confine such person in any suitable building which is more convenient to the place of trial, and to take all necessary precautions to prevent his escape therefrom.

20. (1) Whenever by this Act it is made an offence to do any act without holding a license therefor, the onus in any prosecution shall be upon the person charged, to prove that he was the holder of the license required by this Act.

(2) In any prosecution under this Act the onus of proof as to his bona fide residence in the Northwest territories shall be upon the defendant.

21. Chapter one hundred and fifty-one of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, is hereby repealed.
