

demonstrated by its divisions at the ballot-box, and by the corrupt associations of its officials with capitalist political jobbery, we recommend to all workers to join the organization of their craft in the Socialist Trade and Labor Alliance, a trade union movement which teaches the political solidarity of all wage workers at the ballot box.

